

"Alleluia" echoes past the doors of the auditorium during the Christmas program, the crest of all choral events.

The orchestra plays old and new carols, the choirs offer songs of Christmas, and the capacity audience joins in Yuletide hymns. Yes, this is the traditional Christmas concert given by all Withrow choirs directed by Mr. Martin and the orchestra under the baton of Mr. Howard. The concert is always a thrilling performance achieved only through hard work and co-operation. The alumni return year after year to hear this beautiful interpretation of the Christmas spirit.

Future Senior Choir soloists warm up around the piano with a chorale.

All vocalists thrill to the Christmas programs:
