

What's this? . . . Another dance? . . . Hot dog! . . . How much? . . . too much . . . woe is me . . . any money? . . . ha! Mother? . . . Dad? . . . Please . . . I simply have to go . . . Just this once? . . . Oh, pretty please . . . with sugar on it . . . Gosh, you're swell . . . May I have the car? . . . but he gets it all the time . . . You ask him, huh? He'll listen to you . . . but he is bigger than I am . . . thanks a million . . . Oh, about two o'clock . . . twelve-thirty? . . . mercy . . . say one-thirty . . . Oh, all right, then . . . one.

Like pulsating hearts, social club coffers fluctuate.

Old Clothes Party October 1, 1949
Hair's let down and voices out as we do a jitterbug.
Pyramid Prance November 18, 1949
In Egypt the pyramids just sit, at Withrow they prance.
Snow Drift December 17, 1949
As the snow drifts so did the crowd to the music of Frankie Carle.

Christmas Caroling December 15 through 24, 1949
Voices tinged with frost echoed through the night.

It's in the Bag December 21, 1949
When the bag was opened, fun popped out and ruled the evening.

Mother Daughter Tea February 12, 1950
Tea was brisk, cakes swell; for gals and their mothers, all was well.

Carnation Presentation February 14, 1950
Withrowites did buy; carnation sales soared high.

Twin Twinkle February 17, 1950
No, you didn't see doubles, just Tally Ho's twin couples.

Pirate Party February 21, 1950
Pirates sailed the deep, dark seas . . . black patches, tattered dungarees.

Ice Breaker February 24, 1950
Older members threw a celebration to get acquainted with the freshman generation.

Skating Party February 24, 1950
In party rating this was it! Yes, it was a real hit.

St. Patrick Barn Dance March 17, 1950
Skirts did twirl in a Dosey-do and around a circle we did go.

Slumber Party March 24, 1950
Slumber parties are always gay, if there is no school next day.

Rushing March 17 through April 16, 1950
The fight is on, the going's rough for the poor befuddled rushie.
