

Editors, reporters reflect Tower News motto: "If

Mr. Renshaw, Faculty Adviser

Ruth Lang, Editor-in-Chief

Out of seemingly endless confusion chaos, and catastrophe, each week the hard-working Tower News staff produces one of the top ranking papers in the entire country. The nerve center of Withrow's extra curricular activities, Tower News works hard to uphold its slogan, "If it happened, it's here."

If you stray by 106 and hear, "We've got a tombstone," don't be fooled. You're not approaching a grave diggers' meeting but merely the Tower News room. In this metropolis of journalistic activity, social doings, sports, interesting editorials, questionnaires, club news are processed for print.

Living the life of Riley, Tower News editors stop for a sip of coke and a bit of knitting.
