"Take the keys over to Mr. Rhollans," are familiar words in the business office of the Annual. The busy occupants of this office can always find work, what with selling annuals, checking accounts, and making senior picture appointments.

"Watch the birdie!" Who else but photographers? Whenever a flash is seen, it is usually the student photographer taking activity pictures. Very little work had been done before, but you can be sure that from now on there will be a flash at all activities.
