

Row 1—R. Kemen; R. Hersh; C. Parker; B. Drier; F. Guckenberger; M. Tegel; T. Puroff; E. Bartsch; D. Lundquist; J. Srofe; R. Lang; D. Hudson; Meyer; N. Niemes; B. Kleine; J. Crews; B. Shafer. Row 2—W. Avril; B. D. Anderegg; E. Saar; E. Jacobs; V. Brennan; K. Holwadel; G. Simester; D. Engel; A. Cavagnaro; G. Thayer.

these ambitious dramatists bring stage glamour into Withrow Players has gone a long way since the first rubber tire hike and hayride and its movie production, "Growing Pains," in 1936. Granted, this club still serves as one outlet for Withrow dramatic talent; but the annual productions have progressed from one act plays to this year's achievement, "The Man Who Came to Dinner," applauded as one of the best plays the club ever presented. These thespians humbly doff their hats to their capable director and club adviser, Mr. Thomas Dane. Climaxing a year of fun and work, members of Withrow Players indulge body and soul in a traditional picnic.

Row 1—D. Krehbiel; W. McKay; R. Rye. Row 2—J. Stovall; T. Datillo; P. Puroff; D. Drake; B. Buck; N. Egry; M. Newbold. Row 3—E. Lanham; B. Cadwallader; K. Stimson; M. Wirth; M. Klappert; B. McElwain; M. Creelman; D. Patton.

