the lives of their fellow students.

Since 1927, when its constitution was drawn up, the pounding of the gavel has summoned busy Thalian members to their duties. Juniors and seniors test their talents in the fall when an unlimited number of students are welcomed into the club, which had a 1950 membership of sixty-five. In its early days, Thalian struggled for permission to give public plays but had to settle for a classroom performance open to members only. They won their argument and have turned out such brilliant productions as this year's "Mother Is a Freshman", under Mr. Burkman, director, and Miss Rosenberger, sponsor.
