

OAKLEY'S FAMOUS TWINS

The Ambassador and the 20th Century Theaters

These two modern suburban theaters are now operating under one management. Together they offer the finest in movie entertainment. What would you like to see tonight—drama, suspense, action? Or would you prefer comedy, gay and light. At one of these two theaters you will find a movie to suit your mood.

There are added attractions, too, for the kiddies. On Saturdays special matinees for children are shown at the Ambassador. At both theaters there are refreshments at all times for everyone. The next time you have a special yen to see a good movie, do as hundreds do, visit the
