The Ninth Street Hi-Y Club is composed of colored high school boys and stands for high ideals of Christian character. Out of this club have come some of the most influential colored men of Greater Cincinnati.

The Ninth Street Hi-Y Club enjoyed a number of interesting activities this year. Its members extend their appreciation and thanks to the new advisor, Mr. Turner. Because of his efforts a fine spirit of cooperation existed in every undertaking. The officers of the club are: William Simpson, president; June Vinegar, vice-president; Charles Jackson, secretary; Harold Jones, treasurer.
