

- 12 — Flash!! Two hundred students missing from classrooms!!! Don't get excited, they're just in the auditorium practicing for the Hi-Capades.
- 13 — We're really in the big time now. Our pictures were in one of the local papers today, an advertisement for our big show.
- 14-15-16 — What a show!! What a performance!! There's never been anything like it in Woodward's History! (Take a breath) It was super-colossal.
- 19 — Oh Oh!, by the looks of our report cards we've been spending too much time as stars and not enough time as students. Now that the Hi-Capades are over, maybe we can get back to our books.
- 22-23-24 — Happy Easter everyone! We hope your holidays will be filled with sunshine and all the warm promises of spring. But while your mind is free from the drudgery of school try to answer this age old riddle, "Which came first, the chicken or the egg?"

April

- 2 — The G. S. W. gave their annual spring tea today and they had "The Champ" Ezzard Charles as their guest speaker.
- 4 — Mr. Krogh spoke to us on Evening College at the University of Cincinnati. With our noses in the air we tell the under-classmen "Seniors Only."
- 6 — Three particular seniors have a bad case of shaky knees. They are the ones who have been chosen for the try-outs for commencement speaker. The $64 question is "Who will it be?" Well, I guess we'll just have to wait and see.
- 9 — Commencement rehearsal today! It can't be long now!
- 10 — "Come on legs, get movin'." That's the phrase you'll be hearing around Walnut Hills today. That's right! Track meet featuring Hughes, Walnut Hills, and Woodward.
- 13 — "Strike Three and You're Out!" We play Central today at Deer Creek. Watch out Red and Grey, the Blue and White is really on the ball this year.
- 15 — Arbor Day — this is the day to get down and put your nose in the good warm earth. We'll all be busy planting our little bushes we got for the occasion.
- 20 — Assembly — How we love them.
- 27 — All that practicing sure paid off. What a fine success the Choir made at the Spring Concert for singing groups from all the high schools. This was the last exam day for seniors, at least we hope so.
