

VIRGIE AARON. She must be full of sunshine because her personality is always beaming with the radiance of the noonday sun.

WALTER ALFRED. Walter's cheerful manner and bright smile among other things present him as a very popular fellow.

MAMIE ALEXANDER. Impulsive, quick to act. One of Woodward's best in that department of hard work. Fast thinking has paid off in the long run for her.

CLEOLA ALLEN. Cleola didn't come from Egypt — but she's been building pyramids of friendship and politeness ever since she's been here.

HORACE ALLEN. His interests are broad and varied — has a keen sense of humor and outstanding leadership qualities.

JEAN ANDERSON. Instrumental Jazz she collects — Tall and suave if I recollect — To be an office worker she selects.

SHIRLEY ANDREWS. One of Woodward's most energetic students. Her love for stenography will make her a good assistant for some Big Business Man.

HOWARD ANGEL. Howard is well liked for his cheerfulness and his co-operativeness. His ambition is to enter the business field.

JACQUELINE APPLE. Attractive, busy, and popular among the seniors at Woodward.

LARRY ARTHUR. A scholar — To Woodward or the gridiron, he is so dear — We are going to miss that boy "Turnips" around here.

JOAN ARVIN. Joan is one of those "Outdoor" girls who likes all sports but especially does she enjoy roller-skating at Sefferinos.

JAMES AUSTIN. He designs to be a big league ball player, but the navy may keep him busy swabbing the deck.

GWENDOLYN BAILEY. She's curious and wants to be in the "know" — She's smart and on the go most of the time — Aspires to be a pharmacist.

BETTY BAKER. Whether Betty becomes a baker in later life is not important — But right now she's cooking with G-A-A.

JAMES BARNETT. He likes "good ole mother earth" — Plans to dig and plant for all its worth. He has his eye on a farm.

SAM BARNETT. Sam — alias Por Devil, or Snag! — suit your fancy! But he is a well-known figure around Woodward for he greets one and all with a smile.

KATE BERRY. Her flair for public speaking has made her a prominent figure in the speaking class.

CHARLESSETTA BOISSEAU. Mild mannered, attractive, easy spoken — these qualities will carry her far in the field of nursing.

WILLIAM BOLLING. A converted fullback this year. "Plastic" added power and speed to the Bulldog ball carriers.

DONALD BOLT. Don is an easy going fellow and a nice person to know. His first love is basketball.

JOSIE BORDER. She's on the border line — a happy housewife or a successful business woman.
