

BARBARA BOWMAN. Barby is a "bright-eyed" girl — Has a nice big smile and pleasing disposition.

DELORES BRANCH. We're not going out on the limb when we say this little Miss is sure to take root and be a flourishing success.

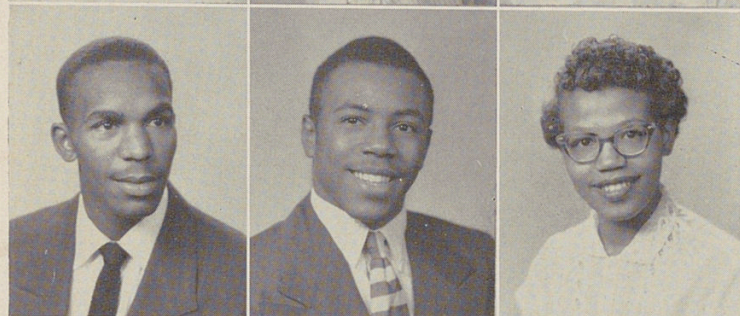

RONALD BROACH. A fine player in the band — His manners and habits are really grand.

BETTY BROCK. Five-feet-three-eyes of brown, "MMMMMMMMmmmm Boy! She's wonderful to have around — A must on the Journalism staff and always good for a laugh, "Good Luck."

BETTY BROWN. With her customary horsetail, this little frilly has pranced her way to the pleasure and delight of her many friends.

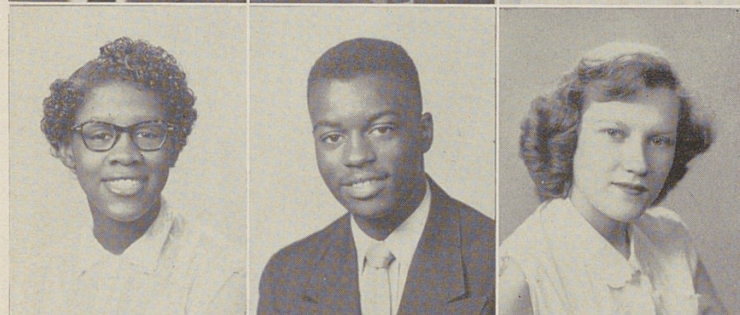

EARLINE BROWN. A combination of fine manners and fortitude has won for Earline a position of respect in the eyes of all.

FLOYD BROWN. A Casanova, a Don Juan, a Hi-Y man and a good sport are the words to describe him.

PIERCE BROWN. We wish you lots of luck and success in becoming a great boxer. Put up your "Dukes".

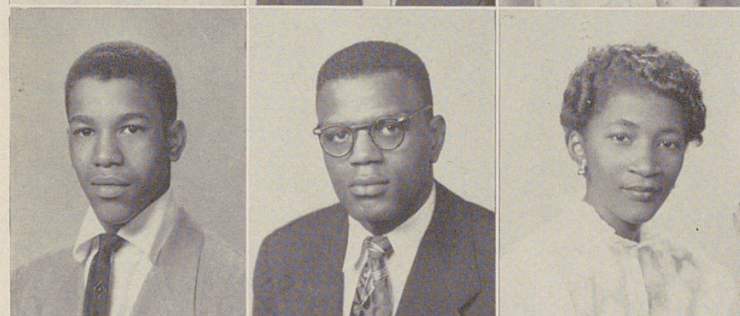

SYLVIA BROWN. A little girl with a big smile . . . that's Sylvia. She also has a charming personality which has brought her many friends at Woodward.

WILMA BROWN. Smartly dressed, an outstanding member in the Booster Club. Her mild steeled ways make her liked by all.

CARROLL BRYANT. "Deadeye" fits right into the scheme of things on the hardwood and the Bulldog. His agility and keenness keep getting in the way.

FLORINE BRYANT. Always to be found doing her all for a worthy cause, especially in the class room and on her job.

RICHARD BRYANT. He is a member of many activities. His plans are to attend Miami University and become an athletic instructor.

THOMAS BURLES. Burles is this senior's name — To be a gym teacher will be his fame.

HELEN BURNS. First, second, third, degrees — are all right, but she's aiming for a college degree.

JEROLINE BURPO. Soft Shoe, Ballet, Bunny Hug, Charleston, Twinkle Toes, she does them all. She really has "hot feet."

WILLIAM BURRESS. Bill is an active boy who will readily lend a helping hand to any good cause.

ODELL BYRD. Scholarship, citizenship, master emcee. She too, has made a name for herself in the Booster Club.

RICHARD BYRD. Richard is one of our few all-around men. He is a good sport and a gentleman at all times.

DOROTHY CALHOUN. Always in a hurry, hussle, bussle, work and more work. She knows whenever anything is going on.

LEE CALHOUN. A whiz on the track — Lee likes pingpong and would like to be an OMI man.
