

WILLA CARMICHAEL. Absorbs all, knows all, tells only things that are important. Don't let her quiet manner deceive you.

DENIE CAUDILL. You really should know him. A true friend. Hard worker in everything he undertakes. Never a dull moment when you're with Denie. A wonderful fellow.

EDWARD CHAMBER. He's looking forward to a cruise with Uncle Sam with great anticipation. Ship a hoy.

VOLA CHAMBERS. Fun loving, jolly and a pleasure to know — we hope she'll get a nice piece of turkey come Thanksgiving Day. This is a local joke so they tell us.

ALICE CHATMAN. Her appearance has attracted many a wondering eye. When she gets tired of looking attractive and takes a swim and feels and looks even better.

JANE CLIFTON. Always with a pleasant word to say to everybody she meets. Her poise and charm make her a stand out any place.

CLAUDETTE CLUTTERBUCK. She is not one to be found "passing the buck" for her dependability and love for service is highly commendable.

BENJAMIN COFFEY. Pour, add sugar and cream and stir up a laugh a minute, a rib-bustin fella — That's coffee — or java if you please!

JOYCE COFFEY. If you ask for this brand you'll be getting Woodward's cream of the crop. It's packed with diligent work and full of spirit.

GLENN COMBS. One of Woodward's Hi-Y men; Glenn always takes part in activities. He will be a valuable addition to the navy.

MARILYN CORDREY. Scholarship, service, intelligence and personality have won for her respect, admiration and the office of Secretary of the Senior class.

DAVID CRAIG. So nice to be around. A fine sense of humor — ready for fun without neglecting his studies.

MAR CRAIG. A wonderful sense of humor, quick-witted and neat dressing are but a few of the many favorable character traits of this sweet girl graduate.

BARBARA CROWE. An indispensable personality on the Bulldog Staff. Her willingness to accept responsibility has brought her many well-wishers.

EVELYN DARDEN. Her excellent choice of attire has made her a favorite with all the spareribs as well as the menfolk.

DOROTHY DAVIS. She's everyone's pal. Her sense of direction is interesting — really knows where she is going.

JENNIE DAVIS. My, Oh My, — What will all the boys do when Jennie is gone. But wait — What will Jennie do.

RUBY DAVIS. Ruby is a gem in any gathering. She has personality plus and we wish her success in her career as a secretary.

MILDRED DAVIDSON. Her sparkling eyes are the windows into a deep and sincere person. She's a gem.

ANNIE DAWSON. She has a good time beating out the music on drums for W.H.S. band — she is studious, and always neatly dressed. These qualities will help her in the business world.
