

ROSEMARY HAMPTON. Rosemary enjoys cooking and playing basketball. She has a gay smile and a sparkling disposition which makes her very popular.

ROBERT DAWSON. His power-house of strength of mind over body. A stalwart in the Hi-Y program and first and foremost on Miss C's list.

JAMES DEERING. Has a winning personality which accounts for his many friends. Sure to succeed in anything he undertakes.

LOIS DICKS. Her keenness has paid off many great deficits in numerous circumstances.

JOHN DILLARD. A Dillard, a dollar, a Salvador Dali — very deft with the sketch book.

BILLY DOUGLAS. A good natured fellow. Gets along well with everyone. An all-round good athlete, a nice fellow to know.

MINNIE BELL DOZIER. How Minnie? These many! — Three! Dancing, swimming, and Mr. C. Her graceful ways do much to add to her wonderful personality.

MARTHA DUNLAP. Some lucky guy may have her for a nurse, but Woodward will never forget her service, loyalty, scholarship, devotion, and true spirit.

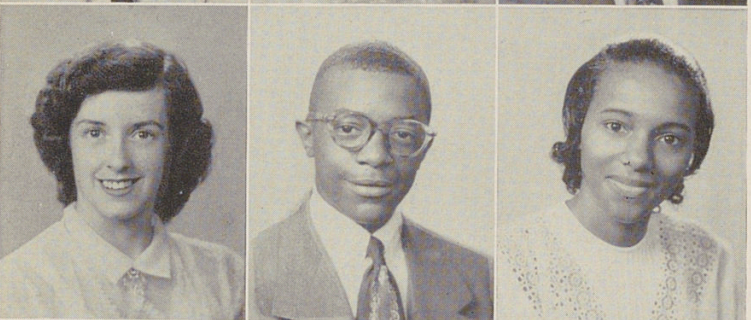

MARGARET EAKINS. Cool, calm, and collected are words that describe her. She's an ivory girl with a sweet air.

GEORGE EASTHAM. Energetic and active are the words to describe this good sport. He spends his leisure time improving his athletic ability.

BETTY JO ENGLISH. Unassuming girl with more than her share of charm. Betty Jo has a very likeable personality also.

JEROME EVANS. Jerome is a swell fellow. Has many friends, is dependable and trustworthy.

OPAL EVANS. She'll be taking the minutes while watching the clock — a secretary for some big "Whig".

VIRGIL EVANS. Out on the coast to UCLA, he may go dragging his stamps behind him — leaving his magnetic personality for us to remember him by.

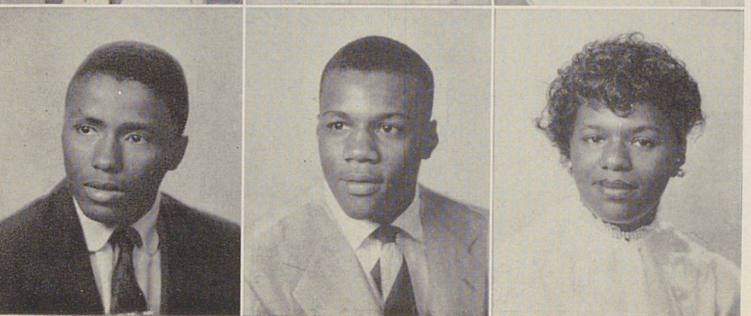

BETTY FARRIS. Three ways to converse: Telephone, telegram, and telling E-Farris — Singing, typing and enjoying herself. We'll miss her around Old Woodward.

SADIE FENDERSON. She can sing, dance, and is athletically inclined — And what's more she isn't a puppet either.

FRANCIS FISHER. She's sure to land a bit and she won't have to pull hard to land it. Her capabilities will lighten the task.

VIOLA FITZHUGH. Wherever there's dancing, you'll find Viola. We hope that she may dance through life with the same ease as she danced through her years at Woodward.

NORBERT FOSTER. Norbert is a very intelligent and capable young man. He's full of energy and will see a job through to the end. A friendly fellow.

ADOLPH FRAZIER. Adolph is one of our best football players and can always be counted on to score for W. H. S. No wonder he is so popular.

DOLPHINE FRAZIER. We have reason to believe she has something up her sleeve. Usually its a very pleasant surprise for one of her many friends.
