

LILLIAN GUTHRING. It is said that the habit of industry is more valuable than a fortune given. She can certainly vouch for this statement.

LOLA MAE HAMM. Jolly and laden with the ever popular three "V. S.", you know, of course you do.

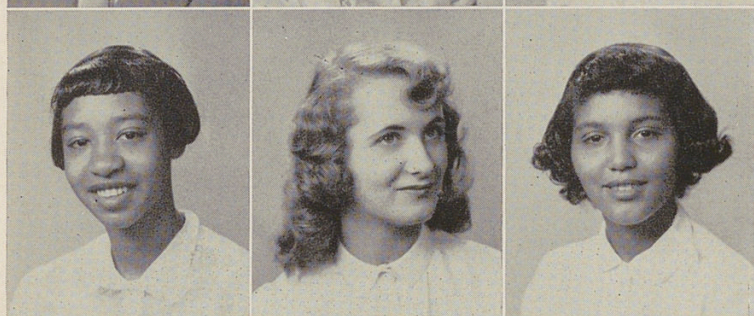

JEAN HANEY. Her hair glows with the radiance of the noon—she'll come a running, ready to pitch and help all causes.

STANLEY HANKERSON. "Hank's" venture into vocal music has made him a guy to know.

ATHERIA HARRIS. Atheria is known as the "skylark" of Woodward—"After Graduation" will find her singing and attending Ohio State.

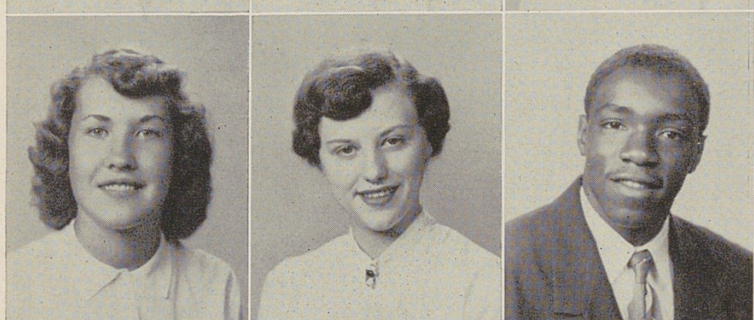

BARBARA HARRIS. Barbara has decided to make the most of her interest and talent in music. She's going to be a music instructor.

LOUISE HARMON. Lou is a good example of good grooming. She would like to become an English or math teacher.

JOYCE HARRISON. Let your life lightly dance on the edges or time like dew falling on the tips of a leaf.

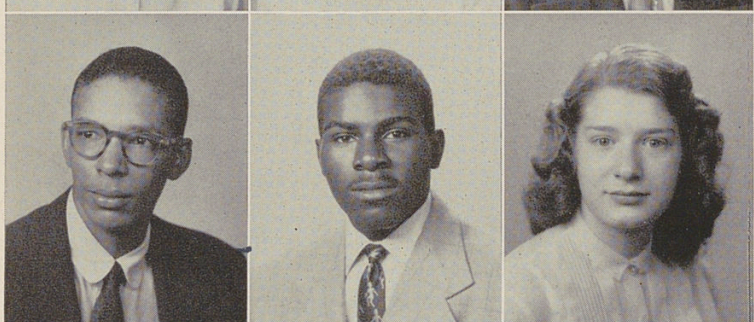

MARGARET HARPER. A vigorous participant in the band, Margaret is interested in sports and hopes to become a mathematics instructor.

LOIS HASTY. "Lois" has a keen awareness of true values. Intelligent beauty. Groomed perfection.

EDNA HATFIELD. "Edde" is as attractive as active, possesses intangible appeal, and smooth sophistication—the eyes have it.

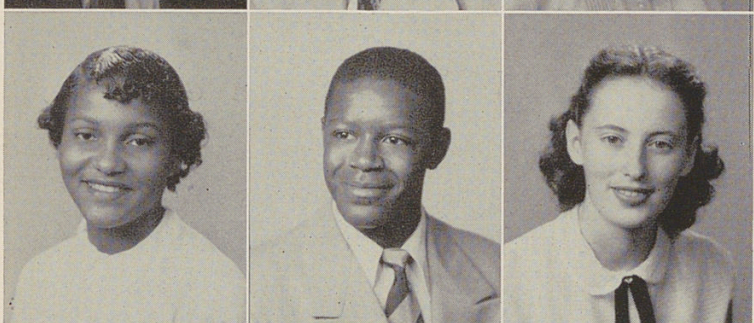

WILLIAM HAYES. Whims are cooking and out of doors—successful lawyer is his endeavor.

ROBERT HAYNES. A quiet guy with a pleasant disposition—when it comes to statistics on basketball Bob knows them all.

CLIFFORD HAZELEY. You can always depend upon Clifford. He will represent Woodward at Ohio State.

MARIE MEINZELMAN. Her unusual understanding of people has greatly attributed to her widespread popularity with so many wits as well as her many friends elsewhere.

LOUISE HENDLEY. Louise always manages to wear the latest styles. She is a hard working member of many groups and she hopes to become a typist.

FRANK HENDRICKS. Frank is a humorous student. Plans to be an electrician. But is he a B-u-l-b S-n-a-t-c-h-e-r!

WANDA HERNDON. Active in many activities about the school and outside. Her coolness in all situations stands out.

BETTY HILL. Betty participates in many activities. Her hobby is sports and her ambition is to become a novelist.

BETTY ANN HILL. You may be seeing her in some responsible position in the very near future. She has all the ambition.

JAMES HILL. James is a likeable boy. He has a witty personality and is a dependable worker.