

HELEN MARY HILL. Smartly dressed, ambitious, alert are but a few of the many wonderful things you might say about this little Miss.

CARL HIGGS. Energetic, tactful, that's Carl — his wide-spread pleasing smile has many a time brought a smile in return.

ULYSSES HOLLY. This cyrano, with his dashing debonair, captivating ways has caused many a damsel to swoon — can you blame them.

LYDA BREADON. Easy going, everyone's friend. This makes her a "must" here at dear old Woodward.

ELEANOR HOLMES. She is just one of the many girls, taking a course in the feminine art of nursing. We know she will be a success!

PAULINE HUBBARD. You can usually find her doing the always fine job at anything she undertakes to do.

SHIRLEY HOLMES. Quite the nice one, she is! Her manner and conduct at all times are something to see! She's smart, too.

VIVIAN HUDSON. Vivian is sweet and friendly. A charming person to know and one who will long be remembered.

BERNICE HUNTER. Bernice's interest in school and activities provide her with plenty of gay chatter which makes her a likely companion. Her friends think she's tops.

JOYCE HURLEY. "So dear to our hearts" is Joyce, the editor of the Annual. She has given her all to make our book a success.

MARTHA HURLEY. All the others dream of being a typist or nurse, but this little Miss would be content as a housewife.

MARY JO ISHAM. Hats off to Mary Jo — a very terrific person who gives unselfishly her talents and time to Woodward Hi — She's one in a million.

PHYLIS IVY. "How you going to keep them Down on the Farm, after they've seen Phylis!" It'll take more than poison ivy.

BERNARD JACKSON. He can always be counted on to bring home the bacon on the hardwood for dear old Alpha — in the classroom for dear old Bernard.

MADELINE JACKSON. "I was Paddlin' Madeline Home". So few of us learned this little hit tune — but Madeline did, I'll bet.

VIRGINIA JACKSON. Music is her major; to attend Asbury College would be in her favor. Her personality has won her many friends.

WILLIS JACKSON. His Sunday-go-meeting smile, his big brown wide-awake eyes and his beautiful voice, has done much to put him right on top.

RUTH JENNINGS. Cool, calm and collective, knows how to handle herself in just about any situation — no matter what the prevailing circumstances.

JUANITA JOHNSON. Her popularity has been surpassed only by her unique personality and eagerness to stick to a job until finished.

VIVIAN JOHNSON. Well kept, always to be found in the latest styles — looking forward to a successful career with some big business firm.

MARION JOINER. Always to be found whooping and cheering for Woodward, on the gridiron, as one of our many fine cheerleaders. Won't you join her!
