

LAVERNE MALONE. Has made plans to go to Hawaii and become a social worker — may we emphasize the S-O-C-I-A-L.

BETTY J. MARSHALL. Likes to take part in school activities, especially sports. Plans to take up practical nursing and then

WILMA LEE MASON. Wilma's gaiety and good humor is contagious wherever she is. That's one disease we could all catch. "AAA!"

DOLORES McBETH. Dolores is energetic and dependable, gay personality and pretty smile. Why do some people have everything?

NAOMI McCULLOCH. Mild mannered, very friendly, beautiful smile.

CURTIS McDANIEL. One of Woodward's indispensable trumpet players. Patient practice made him a fine musician.

JANICE McGOWAN. Makes friends easily and keeps them — what recipe she uses must come from a long line of McGowans!!

VERDELL McNEAR. A fair lassie, she is! Her good looks do much to attract the Woodward lads — she is top drawer with all her clans women.

IDA MITCHELL. "Ida! Is there anything finer?" — We don't think so here at Woodward!

MARY ANN MITCHELL. Seldom hear from Mary Ann — but when you do, it's worth lending an ear — She's efficient and wishes to become a Secretary.

SHIRLEY MITCHELL. Cheerful, full of fun. A living delight, walks with poise, talks with ease, a fashion stylist if you please. Kind of goes for Sam, too!

BARBARA MOORE. With Barb's laughter and happiness Woodward won't be the same — She's full of the "ole ned".

REBECCA MOORE. She has been getting more and more popular as each day goes by — Becky is one fine girl.

LAWRENCE MORELAND. "Larry" is one of our more quiet fellows; but we think he's swell. He plans to be a Building Engineer.

INA MORGAN. Ina presents a striking figure on the football field or in the classroom. Her congeniality, enthusiasm and glowing warmth are paralleled by few.

SHIRLEY MORGAN. Shirley seems to have an infinite amount of energy — She livens up any group at most any time.

WALTER MORRIS. Woodward's football captain and a fine one he was — He'll be missed on the team next year.

MARIE MYERS. Marie is one of those persons everyone likes to know — so nice that you can't help liking her.

WILLIAM NEAL. If "Crazy Legs" could catch up with Bob, he'd retire, meanwhile he'll stay at Deer's till after the witching hour.

LUCY NELSON. Enjoys laughing long and loud — She is a merry little soul.

DOLORES NEWTON. A pleasant, likeable girl who is everybody's friend is a good formula for stirring up another Dolores.
