

COLONEL NORED. An intelligent fellow who is interested in model rockets and jet planes. Who knows? — Maybe his rocket will be the first to reach the moon.

CATHERINE OGLETREE. Likes to be on hand at all school activities — and she always is happy and laughing — Looks at the bright side of life.

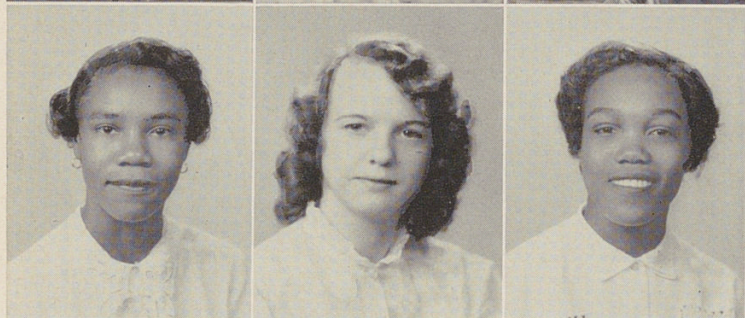

FRANCES OWENS. Frances is as likeable as anyone you will ever meet — And she is sure to meet many friends because of this sterling quality.

HERBERT OWENS. One of Woodward's valuable track men — His ability to work hard will carry him far.

MARY PENNY. A penny with a million dollar smile — and no change comin'!

JOSEF PERDUE. Joe's interest in Journalism and his fine work on the "Bulldog" have made him well known throughout the school.

ROSALIE PETERSON. "A friend indeed is our Rosalie" — For everyone who knows her likes her.

BETTY PHELPS. Betty is right there with the right answer to the biggest question — now how's that for interrogation.

ERLENE PICKETT. Erlene is interested in becoming a nurse — with her poise and confidence she will soon be seen a little whitecap.

JUNE PUNKERTON. Poets and song writers are always saying such nice things about JUNE — so if we sound trite, it's because it's all been said A'fore.

MARGARET PRITCHETT. "Peg-O-My-Heart" is a melody that reminds us of Maggie. She will be pecking away on a typewriter next year. Good luck!

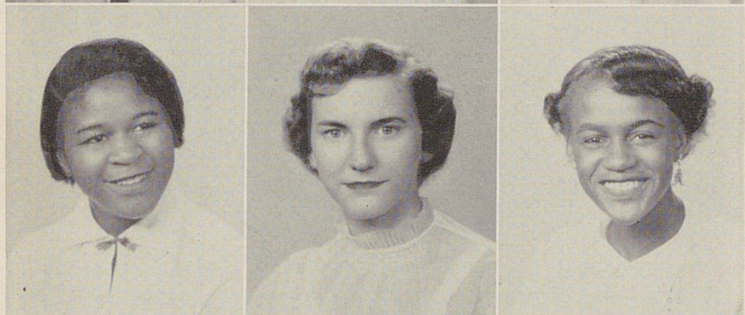

RUTHIE PLEASURE. Fate was really good to Ruthie — It's not hard for her to live up to her surname — It's a pleasure.

BILL PLUMMER. Cool and sophisticated, "Artistry in Rhythm" describes the great Mr. "B." George's ability in art opens many roads to a good future.

LOUISE POOLE. Ever heard of Lake Louise? — Yes. Well, now you know Louise Poole — She is as charming and refreshing as the Canadian Variety.

JOANN PROFFITT. Joann is a great Profit to any one's list of friends — Her unique personality — ever-smiling face will pay off in big dividends.

MARY ELLEN QUINN. Modest in her ways, but can hide it because she's always doing good deeds.

RUTH RAMMACHER. Good friend, good companion — Just plain good to be around — Ramblin' around with Rammacher.

JEANETTA RAVEN. They're raving about Raven — Helpful, dependable, likeable — She'll make good in whatever she attempts.

GENEVA RAVEN. Which twin has the Toni? Maybe neither, but you certainly can't tell Jeanetta and Geneva apart! very near future. A success or "comin'."

BARBARA REED. You'll be reading about her sometime in the very near future. A success or somin.

BOBBIE READER. Cut is the word for Bobbie and if you don't believe us just ask "George."
