

GEORGIA REESE. Always greets everyone with a smile from ear to ear — No wonder she has so many friends.

ALMEDA REIMER. Sunshine is to flowers as courtesy is to humanity. Her personality stands out above all.

GARY REYNOLDS. G is for garrulous, A is for activity, R is for Responsibility, E is for Excelling, and Y is for You ought to know G-A-R-E-Y!

CAROL ROAT. Petite, big in heart and spirit — likes interesting work and "especially school work."

COLLEEN ROBERTS. Loyalty to her school is one of the many fine qualities of Colleen.

CAROL ROTHWEILER. Always nice to be near and always pleasant to think of when you're not near her — A little confus'n, but true.

BEULAH ROUSEAU. "It's June in January" when we meet Beulah — for she's as friendly as a June afternoon.

GEORGE RUCKER. Red Skelton's "Mischievous" little boy is no more entertaining than George — He's real "george".

HELEN RUNTZ. Every day is "sweetest day" for Helen — and not just Valentine's Day.

BETTY JEAN RUSHING. The "I'S" have it — Intelligent, Industrious, and Indispensible.

ROBERT ROUTT. Far out to sea, tossed and turned by the waves on gridiron, or on the hardwood, his true spirit and fair play makes him stand out among men.

SHIRLEY RYAN. Tops in everyone's book — and we hope you read extensively!

EVELYN SANDPIPER. Eve isn't the first of her kind, but she is one of the nicest.

ANN SCHOENE. Ann is the kind of person who helps make the world a nice place in which to live.

PATRICIA SCOTT. She rates high on a popularity pole — and Dr. Gallup won't dispute this fact with us.

BETTY SEXTON. Always an encouraging word at the right time — which is all of the time for Betty.

SHIRLEY SHELLY. Many a successful person has climbed high — by nearly staying on level — she's got her feet on the ground but is destined to climb to the top.

CAREY SHEPARD. A fellow with a swell sense of humor. Carey is always well groomed and in the latest styles.

BERTHA SKINNER. The sunshine girl with the sunshine smile. It warms the hearts of all of her associates.

ALAMEDA SMITH. She has a lovely smile for everyone. May she succeed in becoming a History teacher.

JOHNNIE MAE SMITH. Cute, loves to dance. Will dance her way to stardom — she's got the looks to do it.
