

NADINE TARVIN. Nadine is one of Woodward's interesting girls who stays on a pretty even keel. She's a good girl to have around.

LUCILLUS TATE. Likes to travel. May get opportunity when his favorite uncle makes his customary call.

RAYMOND TATUM. You can hardly have a Raymond in your conversation without someone asking, "Is it Mr. T".

CHARLOTTE TAYLOR. Everybody's talking about her lovely hair — how well kept it is! I wonder what she uses? "Shampoo".

ASTORIA TEMPLE. Quiet, dignified, and lady-like describes Astoria.

BETTY JEAN TERRY. She can be heard high above her band members; her playing ability stands out. She rates high on everybody's list.

MAMIE THIGPEN. Full of wise cracks — keen sense of humor, very witty. She's a favorite with all the girls.

EVA THOMAS. Vim, Vigor, Vitality. Did you see her in the lunchroom?

MAMIE THOMAS. She loves cooking, sewing, and soft-shoe tactics; hopes to improve them and live a peaceful and successful life.

WILMA THOMAS. You will be coming into a large sum of money in the very near future. Use it wisely, very near future. That's what the wishing well said.

MINNETTE TOMPKINS. A little girl with big plans for the future. Minnette's business manner should carry her far as an accountant.

PAULINE TOMPKINS. Pauline is one of those attractive girls seen about Woodward. She dresses exceptionally well and seems to be in the know about "Vogue".

DOLORES THOMPSON. "Do Do" is one of Woodward's quiet and sincere girls. Her neatness makes her outstanding.

IRENE THOMPSON. Courteous, polite with well polished manners. She seems to stand out herself.

MINNIE TIMMONS. A bandbox appearance, an ideal selection of clothing. Never too busy to return a pleasing smile. Popular with everyone.

ROWENA TUCKER. Pep every step plus sparkling vitality, that's "Weenie".

DELORES TURNER. "Dee" is pep and energy personified. She likes dancing and singing — and an enthusiastic member of the "Acapella Choir".

DOROTHY TURNER. When you think of Dot you will naturally think of someone charming and nice because she is that.

PATTIE TURNER. Modest, fun loving, and sincere — devoted to her work here at Woodward.

TOM VAIS. Tom is efficient in his work in the school store — putting things in their proper places — for future reference he wants to be a brain surgeon.

BILLY JO WALLACE. Conscientious, tactful, mild mannered — she would consider being a business woman.
