

IDA WINKLEMAN. "Is there anything finer" than Ida's pretty tresses? She has an interesting personality and likeable manner.

MARY ELLEN WITHER. "Wither" she goes to college or gets a job we know she will be a success.

JULIA WRIGHT. Julia is an active girl at Woodward. She enjoys cooking, reading novels, and hopes to become a nurse.

FUNG WONG. Remembering Fung will give you pleasure, because she possesses many, many likeable qualities.

NANCY WONG. An Honor student not only in scholarship achievements, but in citizenship and personality.

MATTIE WOODWARD. Dependability and an excellent voice are two of her many assets.

ESTELLE WYATT. The smile that pleases. The eyes that sparkle. The voice that talks. That's Estelle — our star.

ADA YOUNG. She has a pleasing personality. To become a famous pianist is her ambition.

ANNA YOUNG. A conservative scholar, she never gives up. Anna is an inspiration to all who know her.

GEORGE YOUNG. A hard worker and very dependable — He's friendly and a likeable member of the senior class.

JOHNNY MAE DAVIS. She aspires to become a ballet dancer. Her performance has given us little or no reason to doubt that she will be one of the best.

RONALD PAYNE. Ron's been a busy boy carrying his various titles this year — Color Guard, President of the Honor Club.

SWAN SONG

Farewell, our dearly beloved Woodward High —
We leave you in body only — for our hearts will remain forever within your hallowed walls, becoming a part of them.
