

Club 409 is composed of the girls in homeroom 409. The purposes of the club are:

- A. To promote saving in the thrift club.
- B. To carry on interesting homeroom meetings.

This year we have learned about our future vocations, politics, religion, and nature. We hope to accomplish a better understanding of the world, and to know what they are best suited to do in life. Officers.

Maxine Freeman.....President
 Gail Jones.....Vice President
 Delores Mitchell.....Secretary
 Viola Harmon.....Treasurer
 Rigina Cure.....Sergeant-at-Arms
 Marian Waller.....Entertainment

LUNCHROOM STAFF

(Left to Right)

Row 1—D. Stamper, J. Arvin, R. Moore, H. Hill, J. Gilmore, J. Anderson, M. Alexander, S. Lewis, C. Ogletree, F. Brown, B. Manion, J. Stuhlman.
 Row 2—G. Franklin, A. Fulty, R. Booker, M. Barnes, M. Thomas, A. Dawson, T. Byrge, M. Mitchell, N. McCullah, S. Jenkins, B. Hunter, H. Ford, B. Ford.
 Row 3—D. Moran, R. Greene, R. Dawson, D. Calhoun, E. Wyatt, J. Shaw, C. Marlin, A. Gregg, G. Williams, N. Foster, G. Rucker, J. Diering, A. Frazier, C. Williams, W. Jordan.

The members of the lunchroom squad are boys and girls who give up their 4th bell period in order that they might offer their services to the students and faculty.

There is a variety of jobs. Students may work as cashiers, in the faculty lunchroom as waitresses, or assistants to the cooks and many other jobs.

The squad of students working in the hall is composed of junior and senior students. Pupils working in the lunchroom must show good co-operation and have a pleasing personality.

Seated—V. Cooley, L. Eakins, A. Ackman.

Standing—I. Meyer, M. Henton, L. Baglion, C. Young, N. Pathlto, L. M. Ward, M. Steward, M. Robinson.