Robert Dawson, club president, staunch advocate of diligent work and undivided co-operation stands high in the esteem of his many boy followers.

His magnetic personality has been the light that has shown so brilliantly attracting so many boys to the lighthouse that maintains and extends throughout the school community and playground and high standards of Christian character — the Hi-Y purpose.

The Ninth St. Hi-Y is the oldest Hi-Y club at the Ninth St. Branch. It has had in its rostrum of old, some of the finest men ever to inhabit Cincinnati, and now, making a prominent name in the business and professional world. For example: Ted Berry, a prominent Cincinnati lawyer. But this year's club hasn't been without its list of celebrates — Charles Wright, Arnold Gregg, Eddie Birks represented Ninth St. on Woodward's gridiron squad. Donald Oliver, hot-shot has basketed his way to stardom on the Bulldog cage squad.

And of course, Mr. Dawson, besides being an inspirational leader, surpasses all opposition in basketball capability, as the Blue and White chalked up another of its many successful seasons.

Other members of the organization seated around the table are: "Dead-shot", Ledonia Hardin, Ron Lear, James Deering, Sam Barnett, Cliff "Hank" Hazely, Ernest Brown, Adophus Lynn, Wadell Hudson, Delose Logan, and Eddie Hill.

Club officers are: President, Robert Dawson; Vice President, Garey Reynolds; Secretary, James Deering; Treasurer, Charles Wright.

The purpose of Y. C. C. is to mold the character of the young people, both socially and morally.

Y. C. C., the Young Cincinnatians' Club, meets at the Y. W. C. A. at Ninth and Walnut Streets every Friday night from September until June. A council of twelve members is chosen at the beginning of the year. Officers of the club are chosen within this council. On these Friday nights such activities as dancing, card playing, ping pong, checkers, chess and refreshments take place.

Officers of Y. C. C. 1952-1953: President, Howard Angel; Vice President, Tom Viais; Treasurer, Shirley Viais; Secretary, Lois Hasty; Sergeants-at-Arms, Pat Orloff and Walter Morris.
