

SEPTEMBER

5. Pigskin Preview. Dedication of Tretcher Stadium.

Seemed mighty long and slow,
But ceremonies ended, football began,
And Woodward stole the show!

WOODWARD 7, WALNUT HILLS 0

WOODWARD 6, CENTRAL 0

8. The first day of school and students everywhere are renewing old acquaintances.

9. The Annual Staff starts to work with the aim of making this year's annual the biggest and best ever.

12. Student Council was represented at a luncheon at the Gibson Hotel honoring Citizenship and Constitution Day.

18. Woodward and Portsmouth played to a thrilling 12 to 12 tie.

19. Woodward's football team fell before Roger Bacon's boys 26 to 6.

20. Central Alpha and Defenders Hi-Y threw their first big dance.

23. The Honor Club met for the first time this year and elected officers.

25. Big Pep Rally honoring the football team.

26. Our football team crushed Fairborn 34 to 0 — First Victory.

OCTOBER

1. The Bulldog barks for the first time this year.

10. Flash! Reynolds wins! He is to represent Woodward during Boys' Week. Woodward played Springfield. Score 61 — 0. We didn't say whose favor.

14. Underclassmen are all decked out today. They are going to break the camera.

17. Our brave lads trampled Walnut Hills 33 to 0.

20. What a pity! No School Today.

24. Big Brothers and Sisters organize. Our football team lost to Central Vocational.

NOVEMBER

4. Tryouts for the basketball team begins — come on out, all you Longjohns!

7. Tigers beat Bulldogs 20-7.

10. Armistice Day was observed in a very touching ceremony.

11. Everybody can sleep late today — No School!

13. The football team lost again — No Comment!

17. The Big Reds scalped the Bulldogs 32-13.

18. Class elections are over — we think they are the people's choice.

22. Woodward was well represented at the Safety Institute at Walnut Hills.

26. Wonderful Thanksgiving Assembly!

28. Mary Jo Isham threw a big party! How?? By the horns, of course!

DECEMBER

8. Assembly today. Too bad, Ladies — Men Only!

9. Yea, Bulldogs! Rah! Rah! Woodward defeats Anderson Township 38-33.

12. West Hi barely edged Woodward 59-29 — Oh, those rose colored glasses.

15. Report cards came out today. Anyone for Checkers!!

17. The Bulldog came out today.

19. Walnut Hills defeats Woodward 53-46. Again, no comment. Mr. Payett and "crew" decked the halls with holly and Christmas decorations.

46. Again, no comment. Mr. Payette and in the offing — It's Christmas at Woodward — Nothing like it!

23. Plans become realistic — Food, games, mistletoe, church, gifts, and so it goes — See you in '53.