

JANUARY

5. Cincinnati traffic was thrown into dire confusion by a sudden snowfall. We were all ten o'clock scholars.
6. Shh . . . Don't tell anyone, but senior rings arrived today.
7. Judge Otis Hess spoke on traffic safety at an assembly today.
8. Senior rings were distributed today. Need I say more?
9. Home room periods today. Seniors had a round table discussion on safety in the auditorium and elsewhere.
20. Inauguration Day. Viewers throughout the nation had their first chance to witness this important event on TV. Half day of school — Never had such fun — what racket.
- 21 — Woodward's top talent strutted their stuff before a full house. There goes our future Hi-Capades.
- 27-28. Exams, Exams, Exams and blood pressures rise — What do they want, B-L-O-O-D!

FEBRUARY

2. Blood pressures are becoming normal. New semester — Routine again.
3. Shillito's shot activity groups. It was murder.
4. Still taking pictures. Blood pressures are normal — save the Annual Staff.
6. Home room meeting throughout the school.
9. Career Planning Committee met 5th bell today.
10. Report cards "Oh Happy Day". Did they have a shortage of red ink? The Bulldog barks again.
11. Home room periods today about advantages of YMCA.
20. Assembly program honoring George Washington and Abraham Lincoln.
23. No school today — (God bless George Washington).
24. Forty faculty pictures were lost by the Annual Staff.
25. Forty faculty pictures were found by the Annual Staff. "That's the way it goes — Here today and gone tomorrow."
26. Harold Stewart was the first member of the class of 1953 to be measured for the Mortar Board and gown.

MARCH

2. Woodward now has two principals, Mr. Moeller and Mr. Cahall! Unique! Hmmm! It takes two to Tango!!
4. Miss Crotty became thoroughly disgusted with the Annual Staff.
5. What's this!! . . . The Annual Staff became thoroughly disgusted with Miss Crotty.
6. Founder's Day Program. OH! To be a silly Sophomore — they were dismissed at 1:10 today.
7. Assembly today — just for plain ole entertainment — Hedley Hepworth presented Dickensian and Shakesperian caricatures in the "bloomin' King's English".
11. Students beat Faculty in "Basketball" game — score 28-25.
13. End of report period (hope you made it).
16. Beginning of 5th report period. (Now or never.)
24. Career Conference — from M.D.'s to D.P.'s — We've learned of them all.
26. Fred Smith, a terrific comedian, gave a hilarious auditorium program in connection with the career conferences.
27. The Bulldogs scalped the Norwood Indians — score 6 to 3.

APRIL

1. Not one pupil had detention today. HA! HA! April Fool.
2. The mysterious six met today.
3. Good Friday . . . Even though we weren't in school, we remembered to pray.
7. The mysterious twelve met today.
8. First tract meet. Look out for speed demons.
16. Mr. G. starts senior rehearsals . . . loosen up those old vocal cords, chilluns.
21. Ole Man Weather fouled up with foul weather today — the baseball game was cancelled.