

Bring flowers of the fairest, bring flowers of the rarest! We feel much like taking a turn "round ye old May Pole!"

1. Hughes choir presented their concert for students — first bell.
4. Assembly first and second bells. We'll miss those relaxing assemblies.
6. "First Nighters" attended our Hi-Capades. "Why, Oh Why, Oh, Why, Oh!" Theme is celebration of the Sesqui-centennial of Ohio.
7. Let's get on with the show.
8. The lights dim and go out on another gay presentation of Hi-Capades!
26. Annual all sports banquet tonight — George Blackburn, Assistant Coach at University of Cincinnati is the speaker. The honored received their "W's" and bars for participation in school sports.
28. Choir Festival at Withrow — Our golden voices have done well this year.

1. "What is so rare as that day in June." Just fifteen days till freedom.
5. Awards day for Underclassmen — See, we haven't forgotten you.
9. Senior Exams — This is the final blow!
10. List of graduates were sent to the Board of Education — Hope they spelled my name correctly!
11. Class Day — 1:15 — This is always a day full of memories for seniors. It's nostalgic, and beautiful, and sad and jolly — We're getting sad and confused.
12. Caps and gowns are here — Now! to get MY size!
15. Underclassmen are pouring over long lists of examination questions — as their thoughts turn to carefree seniors. We'll walk down the aisle to the strains of "Pomp and Circumstance". This is a great day for us — Even though we will miss our school days and friends, we are proud and pleased with ourselves. We will relive these days and wish them back — but the time is now! We must be on our way.
