

APRIL 2—Browsing through some old books, I ran across my old "Hamlet". Brought back memories of Ray "Hamlet" Lockard and Margie "Ophelia" Witt. Lockard does Ham . . . as well as a professional actor. If that isn't the truth, I hope a brick bashes my head in the next minute (crash) * * ? Is there a doctor in the house? We really miss Mr. Neuman since he joined the Navy.

APRIL 6—Imagine Miss Tenhundfeld attempting to dream up a sales talk for the Annual boatride and telling us to get behind and push it. Does she mean to push the boat? Took annual pictures today. Imagine those big huskies with their drape-shape coats freezing while I, with a "see-more" blouse, was happy to be able to go outside sans my sweater.

APRIL 7—Girl Reserves' dance this evening a great success. Made 29 cents profit. (Too many sailors!) Heard an interesting talk about what the service boys expect from the girls back home by a chaplain from Ft. Thomas. (Just call 55 and ask for Junior!!!)

APRIL 9—Fred Gessner says he'd rather be rich than good-looking—Well, everyone to his own opinion—Good luck, Fred. Alice Beyer is in her glory—Louie's home.

APRIL 13—Wore my new dress yesterday and today because Annual Pictures were being taken. Must be that I'm vain! Lakes still insists that he'll be allowed out after 9:00 p. m. for the boatride. He says he's taking his grandmother!

APRIL 14—Mrs. Rehkamp seen putting her first bell health class to sleep. That's the scoop of the year! Edna who usually has so much pep!

APRIL 16—Annual Boatride. And not a speck of moonlight—drat it! But had a good time anyway. I understand it was quite a success financially. That should put Miss Tenhundfeld in a good humor for a while!

APRIL 21—Tomorrow starts spring vacation. Five days with no worry of night-work. Ruth "Sneeze" Wilkinson handed out some of her memorable sneezes in English today. "Ga Zont Hite," Ruth.

APRIL 27—Back in time to rest up from the holidays. Ed

Grizzard claims Easter Bunny slipped him a rotten egg. After that poetry of Ed's, I'd say the bunny knew what he was doing!! Poor Corrine Dula and Annette Harper were very sad. Seems that the Bunny forgot them. Maybe Uncle Sam just doesn't understand.

APRIL 28—Spanish Club and the Woodward Boosters are really making a lot of noise over their boatride. Mr. Theisen promised to come if we got him a dancing partner. What's the matter, Bill? Are you slipping??

APRIL 30—Boatride. We led Mrs. Ladley a dizzy pace as she tried to patrol the upper deck. Don't take your duties as chaperon so seriously. But everyone certainly did have a swell time.

MAY

MAY 4—We'll never forget Mr. "Pretty-grin" Theisen's grey zoot suit. I think he finally got tired of going back every step to get his clothes and gave it to another thoroughbred—Man-of-War needed a new horse blanket anyway!

MAY 5—Thirty-five senior boys are classified 1-A by their draft boards. John Kottsy is also 1-A. That brings the total up to forty!! But army life has its advantages!

MAY 7—Mrs. "Dictator" Walker won't be forgotten by the members of the Bulldog staff! No offense, Mrs. Walker, our names are misleading, too. They call us seniors and yet not one of us is Spanish! That's a gruesome pun, isn't it?
