

The A Cappella Choir is completing its fourth year of existence at Woodward High School. Although seriously depleted of boys, the group plans to carry on if possible, until after the present emergency. Membership is voluntary and non-competitive. The group is composed of students who enjoy singing good music enough to give the required time to the regular duties of the choir as well as no small amount of outside time for programs and special rehearsals.

The choir appeared, as it has in the past, with the Artist Colony in the Annual Christmas Cantata. The group sang with all of the other high school choirs of the city for the Music Educators Wartime Institute held in Cincinnati in March. They also assisted the senior class at Class Day exercises and at Commencement. In 1943, seventy members were qualified to wear the blue and white Woodward robes.
