

Seniors

HARPER, WILLIAM

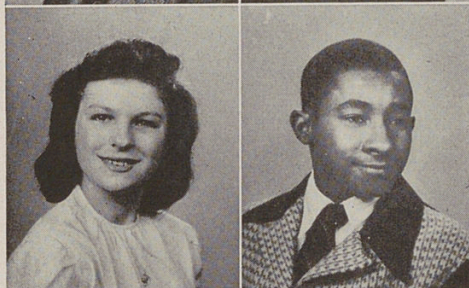

"Another of the tall boys—206 certainly started out with its share. No wonder you had to beat your way through the droves of girls who blockaded the doorway!"

HARRIS, DAMON

Volleyball, American Problems Club, Hi-Y, Old Woodward Theta Club.

"Charm, poise, dignity, and politeness are the things that really make Damon. And these will carry him to great success."

HARRIS, HERBERT

Radio Code Club, Typing Club, Hi-Y, Volleyball.

"Small for a senior but he's doing okay. Liked by many. Does his part. Does not care too much for school but attends regularly."

HARRIS, LEON

Football, Hi-Y, Basketball, Bowling.

"Does his tasks well. Makes the hearts of many glad with his deep voice and funny sayings. Always cutting up."

HARTWIG, ROSEMARY

Co-op.

"She's small, cute, and a likable girl. A friendly person with loads of friends. These little gals always manage!"

HEATH, CASPER

"Little but mighty. Gets around too. Friendly chap. Likable."

HENSLEY, ELIZABETH J.

Co-op.

"'Chubby' has one of the most pleasing personalities of the graduating class. A lot of fun once you get to know her. Many friends."

HERMANN, JEAN B.

Co-op, War Stamp Cashier, Old Woodward Kappa Club.

"Cute personality which wins her many friends. Lovely hair. Her heart belongs to the army. Good luck, Jean!"

HESS, MARY

Co-op.

"A very quiet girl—that is until you get to know her well. Then you can appreciate her charming manner. Easy to get along with and nice to know."

HIGHLANDER, CHRISTINE

Tap Dancing.

"Has a smile for everyone. Quiet but friendly in manner. Pleasant disposition and a true friend. Always willing to help."
