The Spanish Club, "El Club de Pan-Americano," is composed of students taking second year Spanish, the fifth period each day. This organization is under the supervision of Miss Miceli. The club holds its meetings the second and fourth Wednesday of each month. The meetings are held during class time.

The purpose of the club is to give the students a better understanding of the Latin-American people. In these meetings, the members present various reports concerning the Latin-American countries. From these reports interesting discussions develop. The topics of the reports feature such interesting things as the geography of countries, the customs of the people, the governments, the economic conditions of the countries, the classes of people, and their religion. The group also sings interesting Spanish songs.

The officers of the club are Zedric Coaston, president, and Norman Parrett, secretary. There is a program committee consisting of Leonard King, Dorothy Kuhlman, Harry Luhosky, Jr., and Eugene Dotson.
