

- 18 — Seniors began to make appointments for pictures which are to be taken at Shillito's. Ours will probably be terrible. Lost our game to Wally Hills.
- 19 — Miss Anthony announced that one dollar must be paid on Annuals by November 1. Annuals, although the same size, will be three-fifty again this year.
- 22 — Report period closed. Red or black? Oh, well, it's nice to have a variety. Of course, we seniors are allergic to red (ha!).
- 23 — Annual football doubleheader at U. C. Our team didn't play, but the band did quite well with the "St. Louis Blues March" even if Central did "Steal the March" by playing it at the Central vs. Woodward game last week.
- 27 — Janie Y-Teens had a Halloween party at the Y. W. C. A. Castro dived headlong into a tub for apples; with assistance from behind, that is.
- 28 — Brief respite from school. Cause? Teachers' Meeting. Now they'll know how it feels to sit and listen all day. Also gives us a chance to plan our Halloween escapades. Aren't we devils?

November

- 1 — Bulldog resplendent with all the latest names and gossip appeared for the second time today.
- 2 — All we could do was talk about the election, but there was plenty of that. We gave Dewey 2-1 chances of winning.
- 3 — Reports given out — few sad faces, many worried ones in 314 and 201. Seniors are always worried about grades. Suppose we lost our reports? Oh, well, they'd just give us another for 5c.
- 5 — A dreary, rainy day. We go to Dayton for Dayton-Osborne vs. Woodward game, or do we?
- 8 — Nope, we were right. No game Friday. Mr. Duffy refunded our money.
- 11 — Armistice Day. No school but we had to work anyway.
- 12 — Parents' Night. How's Johnny doing? Oh, oh! Woodward vs. Norwood.
- 15 — Council members boosting "War Memorial," our show of gratitude for those Woodward boys and girls who paid the supreme sacrifice.
- 16 — Student Council election for 9th and 10th grades. Seniors filled out questionnaires on their future plans after graduation.
- 17 — First War Memorial collection.
- 18 — Every one went to "Man and the Atom" exhibit at Music Hall. We're still not sure how an atom bomb is made.
- 22 — Senior meeting. Rings are coming! Petitions for class officers being started.
- 23 — Senior-rings. All Seniors happily waved at everyone they knew or thought they knew.
- 24 — The day before Thanksgiving and all through the school pervades the spirit of - - - hunger!
- 28 — Thanksgiving holiday vacation. Yummmmmm! We love turkey, although it does lose its flavor about the third day.
- 29 — Back to school. What are we having to fill our empty stomachs? Not turkey? No! Yes!
- 30 — Look pleasant, please! Freshmen, Sophomore and Junior pictures taken today.
