

Biography, history, fiction, reference works are provide a background

One of the important functions of a school library is careful guidance in the formation of youthful literary taste. Here pupils learn to enjoy good books and to choose those which are interesting as well as of sound worth.