

As the Senior Class of 1949 bids a fond farewell to Woodward High School, it wishes to take with it a tangible object to recall its experiences and activities during its last year. This object takes the form of the Woodward Annual.

This year, the Annual was under the supervision of a new faculty adviser, Miss Mary Anthony. A staff was selected to work with Miss Anthony in compiling the book.

Although it is the duty of the Annual Staff to do the actual work on the publication, the success of the Annual rests on the shoulders of the entire Senior Class. Without their full support and co-operation, the Annual would have been a failure.

Many, many thanks go to those few individuals who helped finance the Annual by soliciting ads. Some of those persons were Nash Thompson, Frankie Phillips, Claire Borgmann, Pat Sallee, Lucille Hatfield, Georgeanna Blake, Roy McClellan, Virginia Yates, Shirley Yee, and Richard Vice.

In addition to financing the Annual, the manuscripts had to be typed. Our thanks go to Miss Marjorie Callahan and Miss Inez Kamm for allowing the pupils to use their typewriters. Betty Surritt, Pat Zucker, Joan Gramke, Claire Borgmann, and Marvin Burkett receive our sincere thanks for typing they have done.

The art work was handled by Wanda Lee McIntosh, Yvonne Crittenden, Verta Robinson, and Albert Andrews. To them, as well as Miss Margaret Clark, we wish to express our sincere gratitude for a job well done.

And last, but not least, we wish to acknowledge the efforts exerted by the homeroom representatives in urging the pupils to support the Annual and to have their money paid by the set date.

The Annual Staff hopes it has given you seniors a vivid and true account of your last year at Woodward. In the years to come, may the Annual recall all your pleasant experiences as you leaf through its pages.
