Dedication

At last the coveted week, hour, moment are here — the time of our graduation. After four years of hard work, we are ready to take our places in a troubled world. Whether we enter the business world or whether we continue our education in college, we shall long remember those treasured years spent at Woodward High School.

Thus, it is entirely suitable that we should incorporate in our book, The Woodward Annual, "links from our golden chain of memories".

Our first year at Woodward brought many surprises, both pleasant and unpleasant; but we survived them. As sophomores we looked disdainfully upon our successors — lowly freshmen. We thought we knew everything, but in reality we knew very little. The junior year found us more humble and a step nearer the great day. Our senior year brought additional knowledge, and we tied together the loose ends of our undergraduate studies.

Now that the long awaited hour has come, we reminisce. Underclassmen replace us, and we are happy, for we know the joyousness that will eventually come to them.

Therefore we dedicate The Woodward Annual to the future alumni of Woodward High School. May they never forget the many noble persons and incidents associated with their school. May they strive unceasingly to make this school — our Alma Mater — a finer and better school for themselves and those who follow them.

Before we leave Woodward High School, however, one thing remains to be done. At this time we humbly wish to express our gratitude to our parents and teachers for the love, thoughtfulness, and sacrifice which they have bestowed on us to prepare us for citizenship in this great country — the United States of America.

History and Tradition

Our school, like other institutions of long and noble history, has been perpetuated because of a certain spirit, called the Woodward Spirit, passed on by each generation of Woodward students. No person ever leaves Woodward without being in some way influenced by the Woodward Spirit, which had its beginning in 1831. This so-called "Spirit" is actually a personification of the ideals of William Woodward, whose body reposes with that of his wife, Abigail Cutter Woodward, in front of the Broadway entrance to the school. To all Woodward students and alumni, this Spirit is a reality. To all of us it gives expression to the indomitable will which found a way to educate the coming generations. We can hear it say most clearly:

"My school is one hundred-eighteen years old. Of course, as time progressed the structure has been changed four times to meet the demands which were placed upon it. In 1831, it was a small two-story brick building which was called Woodward High School. It resembled an ordinary house with no promise of ever becoming a school with such a glorious history and the distinction of being the oldest high school west of the Alleghenies. For ten years, this plain building was a center of learning and culture for the youth of Cincinnati. In 1841, the belfry was removed, and a third floor was added, which, I thought was the crowning step in the cultural life of my school. You may realize then how surprised and yes, even how happy I was, when this building was replaced by a greater one of purely Gothic design. For more than fifty years, this beautifully designed school carried on the work of concentrated teachings and upheld fully the standards and ideals of my founder.

"Finally, however, as more and more youth awoke to the fact that education was one of the very highest ideals of life, the school was filled to overflowing. Again a change was found necessary. At this time, 1910, the present building was erected. Although time marked the change of Woodward High School as a structure, it, along with my spirit of service and standards of scholarship have remained firm through the years.

"To some I may seem intangible; but to those who love and know me, my influence has proved real. Yes, I believe that I am loved by those students who, through the years, have been the recipients of those things I have to offer. I believe also that they are justly proud to uphold my sacred traditions."

Salute

TO OUR COUNTRY . . .

which has given us matchless opportunities to fit ourselves for life, we pledge our unending service.

As the school year draws to a close, my classmates and I look toward our graduation day which will mark the end of four pleasure-filled years here at Woodward. It seems such a short while ago that we were freshmen beginning the task of getting acquainted with our school. Each day seemed to bring us a new and interesting experience, and we gradually began to realize the value of our faculty's constructive teachings. As we look back we cannot pick out any one thing which would symbolize the feeling we have for our high school days. We simply know that the knowledge and the ideals we have gathered during this time are very dear and valuable to us.

We are different individuals and, because of this fact, we each shall pursue that life's work to which we are best suited. We shall make our impressions in many fields. However, the things that we do may be traced to the influence of those ideals which were instilled in us at this grand old school.

Perhaps, this might be called a farewell to friends and the faculty at Woodward. And yet, I hesitate to speak that final word which expresses the end. To me, this is not the end but only the beginning of the time which will soon test the earnestness of our friendships and of our ideals.

RUTH MOORE

Class Prophecy

June 20, 1969

Dear Shmoo,

It has been twenty years since I last saw you. Remember how we stayed out until 4:30 on graduation night and had to wait on the doorstep until 7:30 before anyone would let us in?

Yes, it has certainly been a long time since any of us from the Class of '49 saw you. Through my contacts in the Alumna Association, I have managed to keep in touch with our classmates. Which reminds me, I went to the Alumna Dinner last Friday. I had lots of fun. I sat at a table with PAT SALLEE, RUTH MOORE, ELSIE TUCCINARDI, CLAIRE BORGMANN, RAFEKA AHMED, GEORGEANNA BLAKE, MARY LOU BOEHM, and LUCILLE HATFIELD.

CLAIRE BORGMANN talked quite a bit about her duties as Congresswoman. (The election was quite a fiery issue last fall. WILLIAM BURTON drew the funniest cartoons about it!) MARY LOU BOEHM is CLAIRE'S social and personal secretary, which is quite a job in Washington. FRANKIE PHILLIPS and LUCILLE HATFIELD were trying to get CLAIRE to introduce a bill for more funds for Social Service, Incorporated, where JEANETTE DOUGLAS, EUGENE WEBB, SHIRLEY WALTERS, ESSIE KILGORE, LOUIS WATKINS, GERALD JOHNSON, ROSE BROOKS, LAVERNE SALTER, BILLIE WHITE, and DOROTHY HILL help other people solve their problems.

RUTH MOORE and PAT SALLEE are the heads of the Angels of Mercy Hospital, in which GEORGEANNA BLAKE, BETTY MARVIN, PAT ZUCKER, ELSIE TUCCINARDI, OPAL WHIPPLE, GLADYS FAVORS, and FRANCES LYNN are nurses.

My Junior goes to Truman Junior High School. LITA CLINE (He says she never eats lunch because she is too busy writing her latest novel, "The Just Desserts of the Fat Man".) teaches him English; JOAN GRAMKE, physical education; MARIANNA STEIN, commercial subjects; ARNETTA RABB, household arts; and NASH THOMPSON, applied arts. MARJORIE SHRADER teaches dramatics; EDITH COLZIE teaches psychology; MARGARET GILES and DORIS MILON teach physical education; and DORIS HURST teaches in a cute little red brick primary school called "Blue Bow Nursery".

Yesterday while I was downtown, I met EDNA GARMENE, who owns an animal hospital; and she took me to lunch at OTTO TRAMMEL'S "Fat Stuff Restaurant", the only place in town where you can get filet of sole with marshmallow sauce. On our way over, we passed KATHERINE STATON'S "Up On Your Toes" dance studio, where NELDA SWANSON teaches ballroom dancing; THELMA HOUSTON and LIZZIE PENLAND teach tap; and NORMA JEAN SHAW teaches ballet.

We also passed a dry cleaning shop owned by DAVID JOHNSON. Peeking in the window, we saw HENRY PARTRIDGE pressing pants, while DAVID reprimanded him for being tardy.

Next door, JOHN SWAN, LOUIS DANIEL, ROBERT STALLWORTH, and DON WASHINGTON operate a chain drug store. LILLIAN HARRIS keeps books for the drug store chain; HELEN THOMAS is a stenographer; and LUCILLE CULBREATH is a secretary. Some of the men who help to operate the chain are HERBERT CARMACH, ROBERT SMITH, OTIS ANDREWS, and JAMES WYNN.

Down the street, DOROTHY ROGERS owns a pharmacy shop in which JOHN SIMALTON is manager. Next door, EUGENE LONG and LEROY WHITEHEAD own one of Cincinnati's most exclusive tailoring shops.

Other friends of ours also own businesses: MARY GARMON has an interior decorating shop; PAT KALFAS owns a beauty salon in which EVELYN AMOS, BARBARA JOHNSON, and KATHERINE SETTLES work as hairdressers; GENE McCARLEY and LARRY SCHULZE own a printing and engraving shop; and BERNIE BERAHA owns a bookshop where you can buy old books with rare binding along, with the latest best sellers.

I wish Junior would turn off the radio! He's listening to FRED DAUTERMAN's television program, "The Biggest Lies Ever Told", and I'm beginning to believe some of the stories. Besides, I want to listen to the "Engineering Forum" on which OTTO FREES, who is head engineer at one of those top secret factories where they're experimenting with jet planes run by atomic energy, KENNETH SHARP, who is mechanical engineer at the Turbo Helicopter Company, MELVIN HARRIS, who is the electrical engineer in charge of all of Cincinnati's new lighting system, and CAMILO CASTRO, who is a civil engineer in Chile, will hold an open forum of "Why Cincinnati's New Highways Should Be Elevated". Maybe when JOAN FOWLER gives her daily weather forecast Junior will get discouraged and relinquish the radio.

We finally collected the money from that damage suit we won when our helicopter was hit by that drunken driver, and we're having some repairing and redecorating done on our house and lawn. WESTIE KASTEN, the noted landscape gardener, has already done wonders with the shrubs we brought back from Japan. CHESTER MUTTERS will come out next Tuesday to help me plan my budget. CAROLL VAUGHT, HAROLD STEADMAN, and JIMMY ALCORN will finish the murals in our hall sometime next week. Also, WILLIAM LEWIS will refinish my dining room furniture as soon as he gets time. HENRY McCOLLOM is drawing plans for an addition to the house. Then, VIRGINIA STALLINGS will paint a portrait of Junior to go over the fireplace in the Buff Room.

That thump from the front porch must be our paper. I can hardly wait to see the "Troubles of an Adolescent", the comic strip which GERALDINE HAUGABOOK writes and draws. Then there is the serial BELMA LEWIS writes about the experiences of ELOISE FOX and MARINE WILLIAMS, explorers of those new volcanic islands recently discovered in the South Pacific. Which reminds me, I wonder if the "Women's Gazette" is still running the serial "We Were Secretaries to an Explorer" by JEAN HALL and HARRIET HEIDENRICH. (They were speaking of JOSEPH YEE, the noted archeologist.) I read an account of the return of WILLIAM CARTER and JAMES CROWDER from Europe, where they studied about the latest jet planes in EUGENE MIRACLE's Engineering College. Yesterday in the paper, owned by ROBERT FOGEL, there was a big story about a murder trial. CARLOS EASTHAM was the judge; ESTILL JORDAN, the prosecuting attorney; and WHITMAN MITCHEM, lawyer for the defense. The court stenographers were DOLORES DONALDSON and ARZELIA SMITH.

Junior broke his thumb the other day; and, since I had to take him to a specialist to have it set, I took him to Roosevelt Clinic. ROY McCLELLAN and HERBERT WILLIAMS have offices right next door to each other. They both have a whole staff of nurses which includes BILLIE WHITE, JOYCE WILSON, LOUISE WILLIAMS, BETTY ATKINS, PEARLIE BELL, and DOLORES GRANT. I also saw many office workers, among whom were DOLORES MEATCHEM, MARGARET TROLLINGER, NINA DURRETT, MARTHA HAMILTON, DOROTHY HENDERSON, and WILLIE RUTH SMEDLEY.

Since we were downtown anyway, I took Junior over to EDNA SMITH's barber shop and left him. Then I ran over to the "Whip It Up Dress Shop" and had JOHNNIE GLENN, ANNA GRIMES, and ESTHER GOODEN make me an evening gown for a party given by MARILYN HOWARD. (Her name is something else now, but I can't remember what.) My gown, which was modeled by JUNE HOLLEY, is a simple mustard green number. I'm sure it will be a big success! RAY LEFEVER's band will play at the party. The members of his band are MARIE SALTER, LOIS MANSFIELD, MINERVA LAWSON, LEONARD SLOAN, WILLIAM TURNER, ELLIOT KUEHNE, EDWARD GULLEY, EARL BURTON (and JAMES STEWART. AUMONIA FOX, BARBARA CALDWELL, EARL RICE and PATSY TEPE will sing; and FERT QUATROMANI, who is a pharmacist, will twirl his baton.

Speaking of getting married, JENNIE DRYER, ANNA LEE BROWN, EVELYN RAINS, MARY RUSSO, BETTE CREECH, BESSIE BOLTON, OCTAVA LUX, MARY ELLEN EHRHARDT, CHARLOTTE HARVEY, ROGER CREWS, MARY HEARD, DORIS REED, DORIS MORGAN, HELEN EARHART, DORIS LEWIS, ARTIE CRUM, DETMER LIGON, JEAN VISMARA, LILLIAN GREGGS, CARL MILLER, GRACE HUG, GUY GIBSON, and GEORGE HARRIS are all married and most of them have children.

Believe it or not, I finally got the parking ticket my husband is always warning me about. It was given to me by AVIE SHARP, a neighborhood policeman. By the way, CLARENCE HOWARD is now our mail carrier.

I want a secretary to handle some of my personal correspondence. Maybe I could get one at MARY CONDIA's "White Collar Supply Agency," where one can hire secretaries, stenographers, bookkeepers, and comptometer operators. Some of her secretaries are AIELENE DELANEY, THERESA NOE, JENNIE HARP, MYRT BRUMMETT, SHIRLEY CLATTY, RITA BOCK, BARBARA BLACK, RUTH DENNISON, KATHERINE BRAUN, JANET BITZER, VIRGINIA COMPTON, ELLA MAE ENDRES, NANCY STEIDEL, DELORES SINGLER, JOAN VACH, DOLORES WEBER, FRANCES SCHWENDENMAN, LAVENA BYRGE, ODESSA BRYANT, MARY KELLERMAN and CHERYL RYNN. Some of the stenographers are RUTH BALL, CHARLOTTE HARVEY, VERA FITZGIBBONS, LORENE DUNCAN, and BARBARA CALDWELL. The typists are LULA WILLIAMS, JANE HAMILTON, ROSETTA WRIGHT, ALDAULCIE SOLOMON, MARY FISCH, and PAT REMER.

I got a letter from JACK TACKETT — he's a radar man in the navy. JOHN GREENE is also in the navy. GEORGE HARRIS has a job in the post office.

Speaking of secretaries, I was down at the Board of Education to speak to the Superintendent of Schools about readmitting Junior to school (He was expelled for running through the halls) and I saw JACKIE TROGLIN, who is a receptionist. She told me that JEAN KARETH, WANDA BECKLER, MARIE DeBRULER, ANNA FENSTERMACHER, CRESCENT BIEDERHAKE, BARBARA HALL, JEAN WARD, and BETTE DORIS CREECH also work at the Board under Civil Service.

When our garden club toured factories last week, I ran into RUTH TAYLOR, who is a laboratory technician, and DOROTHY GARDENER, who is a comptometer operator at the Hi-Spot Tire Factory owned by BOB BATTLE and MARVIN MOSES. CAROL McINTOSH, MARY HAYES, LOUISE HAWKINS, JESSIE MARSHALL, ELDA BEDGOOD and DOROTHY JENKINS are stenographers at the Tutti-Frutti Candy Bar Company, which is owned by JAMES HOUSE, JOHN BERNEY, and JOHN BLACK. ADELAIDE BURT keeps books for BARBARA JACKSON and EUGENE BRITTON, who own the Spade Undertaking Parlor.

Why don't you come down on VERNON CANADY's plane? (He has a good stewardess — FLOSSIE GAMBLE.) After you got to the airport, you could get one of KEN LENTZ's buses downtown and then get one of RONALD MILLER's Helitaxis right to our front door.

Perhaps we could visit some of our successful classmates to talk over old times.

Send me a telegram when you decide to come.

So long till then,

Pixie.

Calendar

September

- 7 — School started. Back to the old grind again for a year. Of course, we seniors don't mind so much, since we expect an easy life.
- 8 — Goody! We got our books. Isn't it wonderful to have homework to do once more? (Where is that "easy" life we seniors expected?)
- 9 — Found out that the band and team have already been practicing at Deer Creek for two weeks. And we're complaining after two days!
- 10 — Pigskin Preview. Saw our team in action for the first time. No, they didn't win either of our two games, but they and our band made a very good showing. Our majorettes and new drum major looked especially jaunty as they strutted around Carson Field in Nippert Stadium.
- 13 — G. S. W. got under way with the expert guidance of Miss Orr. Certain students were invited to attend detention, which began today. No, we were not among the lucky few.
- 17 — Night game with Lockland. Won? Well, no; but we had a jolly time improvising shelters against the drenching rain, newspapers being waw out front as favorites for tents and hats. Also, we caught glimpses of the fair at Carthage Fair Grounds on our way out there.
- 23 — Pep session. A chance to see our cheerleaders and team. Mr. Curtis introduced the "Fight Song" which went over in a big way. According to the coaching staff, athletic books will be $1.50. Turn in your used football book for basketball books. Seniors are notoriously absent-minded, so we'll probably lose ours.
- 27 — First senior meeting. We got information about class rings and pins and discovered that we must have our $8.00 or $8.50 when we place the order. Don't they trust us? We're for more and longer meetings.
- 29 — Senior girls in Janie Y-Teens modeled for underclassmen at the Y. W. C. A. "Babe" looked especially sharp in jeans, a long (down to her knees) wool plaid shirt, sox, and saddles. Her accessories consisted of broom straws placed in a smart manner all through her hair and over her costume.

October

- 1 — Makeup magic demonstrated in auditorium. Sharp looked very dashing as a gay-nineties blade and Levy looked distinguished as Robert E. Lee.
- 4 — Student Council began to assign duties to various committees.
- 7 — One down, eight to go (months of school, that is). Orders were taken for rings and pins. To think that we won't get them for eight whole weeks! Home and office report cards made out in homerooms by pupils. What portents of woe that white card holds!
- 9 — Janie Y-Teens girls took their fellows on a hayride. Although the night was cold and wet and the truck was crowded, everyone had fun.
- 12 — Bulldog representatives talked about new and bigger and better paper — subscriptions, 60c per year, single copies 6c. Poll taken by Bulldog staff to determine how much money the average student spends yearly. We didn't know quite how much money we let slip by us! An extra malt a day certainly adds up!
- 15 — New Bulldog came out. It was quite different from last year's, but whether better or not was the subject of many torrid debates.

- 18 — Seniors began to make appointments for pictures which are to be taken at Shillito's. Ours will probably be terrible. Lost our game to Wally Hills.
- 19 — Miss Anthony announced that one dollar must be paid on Annuals by November 1. Annuals, although the same size, will be three-fifty again this year.
- 22 — Report period closed. Red or black? Oh, well, it's nice to have a variety. Of course, we seniors are allergic to red (ha!).
- 23 — Annual football doubleheader at U. C. Our team didn't play, but the band did quite well with the "St. Louis Blues March" even if Central did "Steal the March" by playing it at the Central vs. Woodward game last week.
- 27 — Janie Y-Teens had a Halloween party at the Y. W. C. A. Castro dived headlong into a tub for apples; with assistance from behind, that is.
- 28 — Brief respite from school. Cause? Teachers' Meeting. Now they'll know how it feels to sit and listen all day. Also gives us a chance to plan our Halloween escapades. Aren't we devils?

November

- 1 — Bulldog resplendent with all the latest names and gossip appeared for the second time today.
- 2 — All we could do was talk about the election, but there was plenty of that. We gave Dewey 2-1 chances of winning.
- 3 — Reports given out — few sad faces, many worried ones in 314 and 201. Seniors are always worried about grades. Suppose we lost our reports? Oh, well, they'd just give us another for 5c.
- 5 — A dreary, rainy day. We go to Dayton for Dayton-Osborne vs. Woodward game, or do we?
- 8 — Nope, we were right. No game Friday. Mr. Duffy refunded our money.
- 11 — Armistice Day. No school but we had to work anyway.
- 12 — Parents' Night. How's Johnny doing? Oh, oh! Woodward vs. Norwood.
- 15 — Council members boosting "War Memorial," our show of gratitude for those Woodward boys and girls who paid the supreme sacrifice.
- 16 — Student Council election for 9th and 10th grades. Seniors filled out questionnaires on their future plans after graduation.
- 17 — First War Memorial collection.
- 18 — Every one went to "Man and the Atom" exhibit at Music Hall. We're still not sure how an atom bomb is made.
- 22 — Senior meeting. Rings are coming! Petitions for class officers being started.
- 23 — Senior-rings. All Seniors happily waved at everyone they knew or thought they knew.
- 24 — The day before Thanksgiving and all through the school pervades the spirit of - - - hunger!
- 28 — Thanksgiving holiday vacation. Yummmmmm! We love turkey, although it does lose its flavor about the third day.
- 29 — Back to school. What are we having to fill our empty stomachs? Not turkey? No! Yes!
- 30 — Look pleasant, please! Freshmen, Sophomore and Junior pictures taken today.

December

- 1 — Just 24 days till Christmas and Santa. We'll be good, honest. Janie Y-Teens and their boy friends stuffed themselves at a Supper Party. Yummm! That potato salad was good!
- 7 — Basketball game with Terrace Park. We lost 32 to 29.
- 9 — Senior elections. Who will be the lucky ones? Not us — we decline to run.
- 10 — Basketball game with Deer Park. Ray! We won for the first time in two years. There was a double overtime and we came out ahead 36-34.
- 14 — Results of Senior elections known. Won game with Lockland 40-38.
- 15 — Freshmen had individual pictures taken for annual.
- 17 — We dropped a basketball game to West High by a score of 32 to 19.
- 22 — Janie Y-Teens invited Hi-Y groups to go carolling and fed them afterwards.
- 24 — Christmas Eve. Beautiful program by choir. Excitement, ribbons, and wrapping everywhere.
- 25 — To Jan. 3rd Christmas vacation. Ha! We had to work anyway, but New Year's Eve was fun.

January

- 3 — Back to school, or at least for most of us. A dreary, rainy day. The tardy line was sooo long. Why, we had to wait almost thirty minutes to get an admit to class!
- 4 — We're getting back in the swing of things.
- 6 — Mr. George Johnson, pianist and humorist, played numbers from Bach to boogie.
- 7 — Nosed Central out by one lone point (a last minute free throw at that) in a double header at Wally Hills.
- 10 — G. S. W. members and faculty heard talk on cancer by Dr. Lucy Oxley.
- 12 — Janie Y-Teens, Senior Blue Triangle, and Phi Oser Y-Teens worked on scrap books for unfortunates in Europe. We lost a pair of scissors and Babe stuck her hand in a paste pot by accident. Annual pictures taken.
- 13 — More annual pictures. One of the big advantages of being in lots of activities is that you appear rather often in the Annual.
- 14 — Bulldog out with honor roll and big write up about popularity contest. Beat Norwood 51-38.
- 17 — Students informed that matinee performances of "Hamlet" may be seen at reduced prices.
- 18 — Student Council met. We finished paying for our Annuals today. Now we join the ranks of those who won't rush around at the last minute worrying about paying the rest. Basketball at Withrow; lost 43-40.
- 20 — Letter award assembly. We're corporals now — two stripes, you know.
- 21 — We should start studying for exams.
- 26, 27, 28 — Exams. Horrors heaped upon horrors! Are we ever sorry that we didn't study. Oh, well, you live only once. Beat West Hi 43-41. Were we excited! You bet!
- 31 — Benefit game for polio. Lockland Wayne (unbeaten) lost to Hamilton Public.

February

- 1 — Counselors spoke to girls about neatness and personal habits. Henceforth, we'll be even more conscientious.
- 2 — Short senior meeting. Announcements to be ordered soon. Shall we order thirty or just twenty? Thirty, we suppose, since Mr. Roebuck said announcements always pay dividends.
- 4 — Psychological exam for seniors planning to attend college. Who finished? Did Frees? No hundred for him this time. Shucks!
- 7 — Seniors planning to attend college given information about U. C. by lecturer.
- 9 — Assembly. Goodness, the things we learned about flags! Report cards.
- 11 — Bulldog out. It gets better all the time. Beat Central in double-header at Wally Hills 52-20.
- 14 — Short senior meeting (They're all too short for us.) to decide whether we'll graduate in formals or caps and gowns.
- 15 — Vocational guidance talk to juniors and seniors. Was sponsored by the Y.
- 18 — Fashion show. Hughes dropped another game to Woodward 40-33.
- 22 — No school.
- 23 — Seniors heard another of the series of vocational guidance talks prepared by the Y.
- 25 — Bulldog out. We beat Withrow 46-37 in double-header at Wally Hills. West High also won. We're co-champs (With West Hi) of PHSL.

March

- 1 — Senior Music rehearsal. We're ashamed to admit it, but singing "Farewell to Thee" makes our eyes just a wee bit misty.
- 2 — More vocational guidance talks.
- 3 — Seniors made out cards for correct name to be put on their diplomas. Shall we use our middle names or not? Let's flip a coin.
- 9 — Girls' Week activities going on. Many students out visiting places of interest.
- 11 — Founder's Day program. What fun! A chance to see that wonderful little old lady, Mrs. Sophia Weiler, ring the Woodward bell. Also saw how our lovelies looked in "Gay Nineties" costumes. Bulldog out with news that commencement exercises will be June 13.
- 14 — Rubinoff and his violin appeared on Woodward stage for two short assemblies by courtesy of Junior Chamber of Commerce.
- 15 — Typing II lecture sponsored by Miss Tvrznik in room 303.
- 16 — Senior Music.
- 17 — Student Council had a special meeting in the museum.
- 22-23 — Dr. Peaslee entertained us with stories and movies of camping trips. The "A" section went today.
- 24 — Senior Music. "One World" is beginning to sound a little more polished. "B" section went to auditorium for Dr. Peaslee's camping experiences.
- 28 — Junior Town Meeting. Four seniors debated "Should the Electoral College be Abolished?"
- 30 — Miss Ryan gave an after-school shorthand test.
- 31 — Miss Tvrznik and Miss Callahan sponsored shorthand lectures in rooms 303 and 306.

April

- 1 — Senior Music. This is beginning to be fun. More Annual pictures taken of band, choir, baseball, track.
- 5 — Dr. Peaslee again gave his camping experiences, this time to the co-op group.
- 7 — Senior Music.
- 11 — We had an assembly on "The American Way."
- 13 — Senior Music.
- 14 — Spring vacation. We can't forget our Easter parading. Wasn't it wonderful?
- 19 — Senior Music. Aren't seniors lucky? Oh, well, we work hard for our privileges. There weren't many boys around school today. Does that have any connection with the fact that today was Baseball Opening Day?
- 21 — Had an assembly. This one was really nice.
- 25 — Senior Music again.
- 26 — Man from Columbia University gave half hour talk.
- 28 — Miss Tvrznik sponsored a typing lecture in room 303.
- 29 — Another assembly! They are coming thick and fast now.

May

- 3 — Practiced marching, first, second, and third bells.
- 6 — Typing II lecture in 303 sponsored by Miss Tvrznik.
- 9 — Girls' Softball.
- 11 — Senior Music.
- 13 — The Spring Concert. We're very proud of our band and choir. This was our chance to show them off to outsiders.
- 18 — Girls' sports day. If we had more muscles we could have left school before 2 o'clock. Shucks!
- 30 — Memorial Day and a holiday. We are quite glad to have a day off.

June

- 8 — Class Day. We wept as we marched down the aisle for the last time. To think that never again will we, as students at Woodward, walk down that auditorium aisle. Being a senior can be very sad.
- 10 — Exams for the underclassmen. What fun not to have to worry about such things anymore.
- 13 — At last we received our diplomas. We're very glad to have reached one of our goals (the next is college) and very sorry (much sorrier than we anticipated) to be leaving Woodward.

 ROW 2—Coach Kraushar, J. Rasher, C. Smith, B. Manning, A. McCoy, O. Jackson, A. Rankins, G. Helbig.

The Varsity Football Squad, coached by Mr. Richard Bathiany and Mr. Clifford Alexander, was made up of thirty-five boys. As in former years, the team was handicapped by lack of weight, since the team average was only about one hundred and fifty pounds. This difficulty was offset to some extent by the fine fighting spirit and the excellent brand of football displayed by the team. Certainly the scores do not indicate, properly, the hard, clean football that was displayed by the Woodward team from the "Pigskin Preview" right down to the last minute of the last game. Next year a continuation of this same unquenchable will to win, plus a few more pounds, should put a comfortable number of the scores in the win column for Woodward.

Woodward is proud of the 1948 team, proud of the good sportsmanship and courage with which each member did his job in the face of overwhelming odds.

Co-Captains for the 1948 season were Bob Stallworth and William Burton. Stallworth was elected to an honorable mention on the All-City teams.

The scores for the season were: Woodward 6, Lockland 22; Woodward 0, N. College Hill 0; Woodward 0, Central 6; Woodward 0, Lima 6; Woodward 6, Walnut Hills 14; Woodward 0, Withrow 35; Woodward 0, Norwood 16.

The Reserve Football team, known as the Bullpups, is under the direction of Mr. Robert Krausher. They practice long and hard to gain the skill and experience which will enable them to move up to the varsity squad. Much time is spent in training these boys in the techniques necessary for successful competition in fast football company. The varsity is hoping that the reserve will furnish capable replacements for the five lettermen who will be lost through graduation.

This year's games were played with Western Hills, Purcell, and Central Vocational.

Varsity Basketball

ROW 1—C. Bell, E. Harper, K. Sharp, R. Fogel, E. Miracle, Mr. Alexander.
ROW 2—R. McClellan (Mgr.), Johnson, W. Bell, L. Ruther, E. Fryer, W. Anderson.

Reserve Basketball

ROW 1—D. Thomas, F. Howard, A. Broach, K. Johnson, H. Yee, E. White.
ROW 2—T. Cox, J. Vinegar, T. Beyer, W. Manning, H. Back, H. Roberts, R. Sharp, Mr. Kraushar.

The Varsity Basketball Team of this season caused a real sensation both at Woodward and in Cincinnati. The fine spirit of the team coupled with the excellent coaching of Mr. Clifford Alexander resulted in a winning combination, a combination good enough, in fact, to carry the team on to the title of Public High School League Co-Champions. Woodward's highest acclaim goes to both the coach and team for this splendid achievement.

Games played and scores are as follows:

Woodward vs. Terrace Park	32-29	Lost
Woodward vs. Deer Park	36-34	Won
Woodward vs. Lockland	40-38	Won
Woodward vs. Western Hills	32-19	Lost
	43-41	Won
Woodward vs. Walnut Hills	55-39	Won
	42-31	Lost
Woodward vs. Central Vocational	49-48	Won
	52-25	Won
Woodward vs. Hughes	51-38	Won
	40-33	Won
Woodward vs. Withrow	43-40	Lost
	46-37	Won
Woodward vs. Norwood	40-34	Lost

The Reserve Basketball team, coached by Mr. Kraushar, enjoyed a successful season. The boys worked hard and showed promise of being good varsity material. In every game they showed that fighting Woodward spirit which is respected by the opposing schools. Mr. Kraushar worked very hard in trying to have one of the best reserve teams in the city, and the boys really appreciated his splendid coaching.

Here are some of the games that the Reserve Team played: Terrace Park, Deer Park, Lockland, Western Hills, Walnut Hills, Central Vocational, Hughes, Withrow, and Norwood.

Freshman Basketball

ROW 1—C. Jones, A. Young, D. Simms, F. Redman, G. Stallworth, R. Matthews.
ROW 2—Mr. Kraushar, L. Harris, V. Powell, R. Byrd, V. Stewart, D. Sturgeon, D. Madden.

ROW 1—J. Hambrick, C. Black, C. Castro, E. Miracle.
ROW 2—M. Grizzard, C. Jenkins, J. Sofer, H. Partridge, G. Stallworth, S. Oliver, D. Gregg, A. Jones.

The potential varsity stars of four years hence, the Freshman Basketball team is composed of twelve boys under the direction of Mr. Robert Kraushar. The group practiced each Tuesday and Thursday at Woodward and made the long trip to Walnut Hills each Saturday in order to play. Such efforts were not in vain, for the group wound up the season in third place in the Public High School League. Games won were played with Central and Hughes, while the games with Western Hills, Walnut Hills, and Withrow were lost. The team eliminated Western Hills in the tournament, only to be eliminated in its turn by Withrow, who won the tournament.

In 1948-49, for the first time in five years Woodward had a cross country team to represent it at Avon Fields, where the cross country meets are held. This team was entered in four meets and in the district meet. It was coached by Mr. Russel, who also teaches the Woodward students how to drive. The team as a whole failed to show, but some of the members finished regularly among the first twenty at every meet.

Running for the varsity team were Castro, Craig, Miracle, Black, House and Hambrick. Miracle and Black received silver awards in the district meet.

The junior team composed of Oliver, Jenkins, Partridge, Jones, Grizzard and Sofer took part in three meets. The manager in charge of equipment was G. Stallworth.

Track, coached by Mr. Richard Bathiany, is one of the minor sports which has grown considerably in recent years. Since the comeback of track to Woodward in 1946, this year's team is the best. The team members have worked diligently and performed wonderfully under the efficient guidance of the coach. The team's effort has brought honor to themselves, the coach, and the school. The team has competed with some of the best track teams in the state, and has shown well, even considering the handicap of no good field on which to practice.

Some of the prominent seniors who have performed this year are: Robert Stallworth, in the hurdles; Vernon Canady, in the broad jump; John Black, in the 440 yd. dash; Camilo Castro and Eugene Miracle, in the distance runs; and James House, an all round performer.

The juniors who will compete this year are: Ryland Herndon, David Thomas, Sam Williams, and James Hambrick.

The Junior track team is the best since '46. Some promising members are: Ralph Kelly, Clinton Reynolds, Carl Parker, Charles Goldsmith, Odel Jackson, and Earnest Moorehead. Some of these boys are already competing in senior events.

With four regulars, Earl Rice, Ken Sharp, Ron Warren, and Ronald Wilson from last year's squad, Coach Kraushar is striving to rebuild the Woodward Baseball team.

The diamond aspirants around whom Coach Kraushar plans to rebuild his team are Tom Beyer, Paul Huff, Larry Kilgore, and Arnold Young on the mound staff; Richard Beare and Ronald Wilson will handle the catching assignment; Wm. Bell, Winford Hall, James Hamilton, Earl Rice, Rob Sharp, Ken Sharp, Row Warren, and Elmo White are competing for the infield positions; and Harry Catching, Robert Cullen, Paul Huff, Wm Humphries, Larry Kilgore and Starland Schafer make up the outfield candidates.

Coach Kraushar is optimistic about his team as he believes that with additional experience this team will be able to compete with the best.

Each Tuesday after school a group of ten interested girls meet to learn and practice the fundamentals of life saving. Under the capable direction of Miss Betty Essel, they perfect the basic strokes and learn the techniques of artificial respiration together with methods of caring for a victim after rescue has been accomplished. To qualify for membership in this class a girl must have passed the Red Cross Swimmers Examination. The members of this group receive theoretical as well as practical instruction and are given frequent tests on the textbook material. When the girls have taken the required tests, they receive the Red Cross Life Saving Certificate and the Red Cross Life Saver's emblem which is worn with pride by its possessor. Certainly the importance of training in this phase of swimming cannot be over-emphasized.

"Oops! Up and over they go! Careful there — that headstand is a little wobbly. Oh, well, everyone falls sometimes." The tumbling club meets every Wednesday after school in the Girls' Gymnasium, under the direction of Mrs. Edna Rehkamp, faculty adviser.

First, the girls are taught such things as forward rolls, cartwheels, and headstands. When these are mastered, harder stunts, such as handsprings, are taught by Mrs. Rehkamp with the help of John "Whitey" Mohr, a Woodward graduate of 1945.

Every other year, the tumbling club presents a tumbling show in the auditorium in collaboration with the Tap Dancing class. The tumblers perform their best acrobatic feats before the entire student body.

The purpose of this club, which meets every Wednesday and Thursday after school from 3:00 P. M. to 5:00 P. M., is to foster good sportsmanship. The girls participate in such intramural sports as hockey, volleyball, basketball, and soft ball. If time permits at the end of the year, they participate in individual sports such as ping pong. The members of the G. A. A. work informally under the capable supervision of Mrs. Edna Rehkamp and Miss Betty Essel.

The officers of the G. A. A. are:

President — Frankie Phillips

Vice-President — Shirley Yee

Although the ballet class is a new organization at Woodward this year, the growing enthusiasm of its members indicates that it will be successful and permanent. This class, which is composed of girls from all of the grades, meets every Thursday morning during the first period. Under the supervision of their capable instructress, Miss Hazel Orr, the girls learn how to have poise as well as a variety of dance movements. These dance movements not only include the position of the feet, but also that of the hands and arms; for, when she is learning ballet, the position of the hands and arms plays a very important part in the gracefulness of a ballerina. Miss Orr has been very patient with the girls even though it was very difficult for some of them to learn the harder steps.

Woodward girls don't have to go to Arthur Murray's or the Rosedale Dancing Academy to learn how to tap dance. Woodward has two classes in which the girls can work toward this goal. Here all the ninth, tenth, eleventh, and twelfth grade girls who are interested learn the basic fundamentals of dancing. The first of these two groups meets on Tuesday during the first period; the second, on Tuesday after school.

Most of the girls of the first bell class had to give up a study bell or a period of gym to be in this tap dancing class. The girls who come after school gave up some of their time which could be used for studying or doing something else.

The time these girls gave up was not wasted, however. Through the tireless efforts of Mrs. Edna Rehkamp, their capable faculty adviser, the girls work to accomplish a two-fold purpose, to learn to tap dance and to improve poise, posture, and self-confidence.

Special recognition goes to Doris Steel for her splendid piano accompaniment.

As the Senior Class of 1949 bids a fond farewell to Woodward High School, it wishes to take with it a tangible object to recall its experiences and activities during its last year. This object takes the form of the Woodward Annual.

This year, the Annual was under the supervision of a new faculty adviser, Miss Mary Anthony. A staff was selected to work with Miss Anthony in compiling the book.

Although it is the duty of the Annual Staff to do the actual work on the publication, the success of the Annual rests on the shoulders of the entire Senior Class. Without their full support and co-operation, the Annual would have been a failure.

Many, many thanks go to those few individuals who helped finance the Annual by soliciting ads. Some of those persons were Nash Thompson, Frankie Phillips, Claire Borgmann, Pat Sallee, Lucille Hatfield, Georgeanna Blake, Roy McClellan, Virginia Yates, Shirley Yee, and Richard Vice.

In addition to financing the Annual, the manuscripts had to be typed. Our thanks go to Miss Marjorie Callahan and Miss Inez Kamm for allowing the pupils to use their typewriters. Betty Surritt, Pat Zucker, Joan Gramke, Claire Borgmann, and Marvin Burkett receive our sincere thanks for typing they have done.

The art work was handled by Wanda Lee McIntosh, Yvonne Crittenden, Verta Robinson, and Albert Andrews. To them, as well as Miss Margaret Clark, we wish to express our sincere gratitude for a job well done.

And last, but not least, we wish to acknowledge the efforts exerted by the homeroom representatives in urging the pupils to support the Annual and to have their money paid by the set date.

The Annual Staff hopes it has given you seniors a vivid and true account of your last year at Woodward. In the years to come, may the Annual recall all your pleasant experiences as you leaf through its pages.

The responsibilities of a member of The Old Woodward Honor Club are to maintain a high academic standard, take an active part in school affairs, support teams and publications, and encourage others to do so. A Capella Choir

The A Cappella Choir is a firmly established organization at Woodward High School. It was established ten years ago by Mr. William Rimanoczy, who is still the director of the group. The choir has developed into a well-trained, a cappella singing group which has won wide acclaim for its many accomplishments. During this year the choir has appeared in many programs throughout the city. They have sung in many churches. Among these were the Rockdale Jewish Synagogue and Wesley Chapel. The choir sang at the Founder's Day program in honor of William Woodward, founder of the school. The A Cappella Choir has sung for nine years as a robed choir. This year they have new uniforms — blue robes with gold stoles. Any student with average musical ability may join the choir. For choir membership to prove beneficial to both the student and the organization, members must be faithful in attendance and practice. Because this has been true of all choir groups in the past, Woodward's A Cappella Choir has become an outstanding singing group.

Membership in the A Cappella Choir is as follows:

Jeanne Ader, Hurtis Bell, Pearlle Pell, Jack Broadus, Shirley Brown, Lauretta Browning, Velma Brvant, Erma Burnett, Virginia Callahan, Mary Alice Canadv, Clarence Clay, Willie Clay, George Colin, Edith Colzie, Beverley Connell, Pansy Covert, Lamar Cox.

The Woodward Band began its activities three weeks before school opened in preparation for the preview football game at U. C. Stadium. Woodward's was one of two bands selected for the occasion. After quite a successful football season the band transferred its emphasis to concert music. On November 10th the Woodward Band participated in the Christmas Balloon Parade.

A clarinet quartet, a trumpet quartet, and a trombone quartet received Division II (Excellent) ratings at the Southwestern Ohio Competition Festival at Miami University, Oxford, Ohio. At the same Festival, Warren Grace, trombone soloist, received a Division I rating (Superior). On April 30th, he performed at the state Festival and received a Division II (Excellent) rating.

The year's activities were climaxed with a Spring Concert by the band and choir.

Woodward is proud of its band and especially of the groups who carried the Blue & White to top rating in the Ohio Competition Festival.

Members of these groups are:

CLARINET—Bernice Benton, Leonard Sloan, Fert Quatromani, Lois Mansfield.

TRUMPET—Ray LeFever, Edward Gulley, Kenneth Lentz, William Haynes.

TROMBONE—Warren Grace, Charles Burress, William Brown, William Williams.

Journalism Class

Stagehands

The Journalism Class is composed of seniors, outstanding in English, whose chief duty is the production of Woodward's student publication, The Woodward Bulldog. A textbook on Journalism is studied for the principles and practices of newswriting. These are then applied to the production of the Bulldog, which is issued twice a month to approximately one thousand readers.

The Woodward Bulldog was first published in September, nineteen hundred and forty-one under the supervision of Mrs. Grace Schiele Walker, who served as faculty advisor until nineteen hundred and forty-eight. This year Mrs. Marjorie McKinney has assumed the position of faculty advisor of the Bulldog.

The editorial staff of the Bulldog is as follows:

Editor.....	Otto Frees
Assistant Editor.....	Lita Cline
Business Manager.....	Marvin Moses
Commercial Editor.....	Claire Borgmann
Circulation Manager.....	Robert Fogel
Advertising Managers.....	Robert Battle and Leroy Whitehead
Feature Editor.....	June Holley
Managing Editor	Eugene Miracle

The stagehands are a group of boys who, under the capable direction of Miss Mary Higgins, attend to the stage and house lights, the curtain, and the microphone in the auditorium. These boys also arrange props on the stage for speakers and plays, move seats, and make themselves generally helpful.

The stagehands give up their free time nearly every day in order to attend to something in the auditorium. No play, concert, or program could go on without their behind-the-scenes work. That they are almost invisible in that their presence is seldom realized attests to the fact that they do an excellent job, for the good stagehand does not detract any attention from what is happening on the stage.

They deserve many thanks for willingly doing a difficult task, in return for which they receive no remuneration, no fame, and very little thanks and credit.

Cheerleaders

D. Collins, E. Schaffer, F. Phillips, J. Maphet.

Majorettes

J. Holley, H. Young, F. Quatromani, J. Harp, P. Nolan, F. Johnston.

The cheerleaders are expected to attend all football, basketball, and baseball games, teach the cheers to students, cheer the team whether it wins or loses, be faithful and loyal at all times, and preside at pep rallies.

Boys and girls who are interested and who comply with certain qualifications are chosen by a group of faculty members. The new cheerleaders are taught the old cheers by the veteran cheerleaders, who are permitted to perform their duties at games. New cheerleaders cheer at games only at the end of the basketball season.

The cheer contest, which was held for the first time this year, will become an annual project of the cheerleaders, who say, "It is a hard task to be an all-round student and take the lead in an outside activity as difficult to learn as cheerleading, but the pleasure is worth it."

Our pretty majorettes lead our band in lively marches and novelty song numbers for football games. They also perform for special occasions such as the Spring Concert and parades. Candidates for majorette are approved by a group of faculty members. The prospective majorettes must practice with the others once a week. Each year the best and most experienced ones are chosen to lead the band. Hours spent as a majorette count in points toward a letter for service.

The Woodward Lunchroom Squad is composed of a group of boys and girls who have been carefully chosen to aid in making things run smoothly and efficiently during the lunch period. It is necessary for these pupils to sacrifice a free period in the interest of better school operation, but they do it cheerfully and without recrimination. The excellent order in the lunchroom and the adjoining corridor is a tribute to the success with which these people are working.

Visual Aids is composed of a group of pupils who are carefully selected and highly trained to operate the various movie machines and other types of visual aids which the school finds invaluable. These pupils volunteer for the work and are obliged to give up a study period whenever they are called upon. The group has several operators available each period of the day so that teachers may schedule films at the time most convenient to them and most appropriate for their class work. The projection room set aside for Visual Aids is 112. However, when necessary, films are also shown in the auditorium and in the individual classrooms.

Mr. Alfred Rubendunst is the very capable director of this group. To him goes the thanks of the entire faculty and the student body for his painstaking care of visual aids.

The G. S. W., which stands for Goal Striving Woodwardites, is under the supervision of Miss H. Orr. This group is composed of twelfth grade girls. Since its origin, the members of this club have done all kinds of service projects. During the war scrap books and other things were done for our boys. This year the girls have taken the children of the colored orphanage for their little brothers and sisters and projects have been carried on in their behalf.

Some of the outstanding projects for this year were a lecture on cancer by Dr. Lucy Oxley and a tea which was enjoyed by the faculty and students alike. At Christmas a party was given for the boys Honor Club which consisted of games, dancing, and refreshments. Earlier in the year a party was given for the Little Sisters in the ninth grade. Knitting was taken up as a project in which Miss Orr did the supervising. The girls conducted their own discussion groups on various problems they had. A Valentine party was given for the boys and girls in the orphanage. In April and May, the members for next year were chosen and initiated and, in June, a big party closed the program for the year.

Any Woodward student or graduate may join the Young Cincinnatians' Club which meets on Friday nights in the Y. W. C. A. at Ninth and Walnut Streets. Since the membership quota of 85 is filled early in the school year, members may bring guests to "Open House" twice monthly. The Club does not meet regularly during football and basketball season when there are games on Friday night.

The purpose of the club is to promote social activities which, in turn, develop good character and citizenship. The activities of the club are planned by a council of twelve under the guidance and supervision of Miss Barbara Forbes, who is the club's advisor. In their modern clubroom, which has its own kitchen where refreshments are prepared, the members play checkers, chess, and ping-pong. Also, those who care to may dance or play records. The club's special events include swimming, hayrides, dances, moonlight picnics, parties, and starlight dances on the roof of the Y. W. C. A.

The officers of the club are Joan Gramke, President; Leroy Beckum, Vice-President; Marilyn Howard, Secretary; June Holley, Treasurer; Jean Ader and Bud Gulley, Sergeants-at-Arms.

Together with its sponsor, Miss Kamm, the club gathers much practical up-to-the-minute information from speakers, sent by representative down-town business houses, who talk on subjects dealing with the various duties required of secretaries by the modern business man and describe the particular personality traits so necessary to the successful secretary. This material is of great advantage to Club members, who follow with interest and enthusiasm the excellent programs planned by their organization.

For the first time in the recent history of Woodward, Botany Clubs have been organized. These clubs are under the direction of Mrs. L. Nantz. The members of the third period class are much interested in the advantages they have derived from their club. Since the main objective of the group is to provide opportunities to acquire a better understanding of plant life, a program of reports, excursions and various other unusual activities has been planned.

The following pupils have been elected as leaders of the club.

President — Robert Smith

Co-President — Jack Broadus

Secretary — Marlene Meniffee

Treasurer — J. Swisshelm

Sergeants-at-Arms — Carol Holly, Martha Jelks

The Latin Club is an organization composed of the members of the second year Latin Class. Since the foundation of the club in nineteen hundred and thirty-two, it has provided much interesting and informative material to pupils who are interested in the classics. Because the purpose of the club is to promote interest in Latin, most of the efforts are directed toward acquiring information about the lives of the Romans who spoke Latin. Also, the members discuss the English words derived from Latin, the similarity of Latin and English grammar, and the similarity of modern life to that in the time of the Romans.

The Second Bell Speech Club was organized in order to provide the members of this class with an opportunity to acquire practice in all phases of their work. One of the first projects undertaken was the writing and adopting of a constitution. A great deal of interest and effort is expended by the pupils in preparing programs for the meetings which are held each Friday. Talks, poems, and readings of various kinds are presented. Constructive criticism of the material itself, as well as its delivery, is presented. It is the hope of all the members that the end of the year will find each one more proficient in speech. As a final activity the club plans to present a one-act play.

The officers of the club for 1948-9 are:

President — Louis Daniels

Vice-President — Steve Reynolds

Secretary — June Holley

Treasurer — Nash Thompson

The Junior Speech Club, under the guidance of Mrs. Marjorie McKinney, is composed of the members of the third period speech class. The foremost aim of the club is to prepare the members to speak correctly and forcefully. Early in the year a committee was chosen to write a constitution. After considerable discussion, a final draft was agreed upon and adopted. The meetings are conducted according to parliamentary rules. The students have learned many fundamentals of good speech. They have catalogued their own defects and are trying to overcome them. On Friday speeches, contests, and story telling help make up the program.

Officers of the club are elected every six weeks. The officers include president, vice-president, secretary, and chaplain. Members who have been elected to the presidency so far this year are Charles Goldsmith, Charles Davis, and Philip Nelson.

The fourth period class in public speaking has, in its turn, organized a club. This group is called simply the Fourth Period Public Speaking Club. Like the members of the second and third period classes, these students desired more experience in speaking before a group. They also felt a definite need for training in parliamentary law. As a result, they devote one class each week to a meeting conducted according to parliamentary rules. A program is prepared which includes discussion groups, readings, and dramatizations.

New officers are elected each month in order to give each member experience in an executive capacity. Officers elected are president, vice-president, secretary and treasurer.
