HOWARD TRECHTER

1906-1944

The death of Howard Trechter, killed in action in Luxemburg the eleventh of October, nineteen hundred and forty-four, was an irreparable loss, not only to his family and friends, but to the teaching profession as well. He had much to offer.

We, who were his friends and associates here at Woodward High School, came to respect and admire him during the few months he was a member of our faculty before being called into the service of his country. All who knew Howard Trechter remember him as a courageous spirit, an excellent teacher, a loyal friend.

Howard Trechter lived bravely and died bravely. The hope of our nation rests with men like him.
