Charm Club

The Charm Club, under the supervision of Mrs. Lora Nantz, meets twice a month. As the name suggests, the club was organized for the purpose of learning how to be more charming. Personal problems of charm and hygiene are discussed by members of the club, along with articles taken from teen-age magazines.

The officers of the club are: Betty Jane Morton, president; Anna Jones, vice-president; and Phyllis Quinn, secretary.

Seated: R. Chitwood, A. Jones, P. Warneke, V. Addison, L. Begley, A. Keene, S. Irvin, D. Eberhart.
Second Row: J. Keller, J. Crouse, G. Lane, J. Honeycut, I. Bandy, I. Yee, C. Fitzpatrick, G. Young,
L. M. Bauniel.

Third Row: L. Brown, P. Quinn, G. Halcomb, E. O'Henry, A. Hood, B. J. Morton, O. Johnson.
