

Color Guard—Don Sallee, Joe Bryant, George Gay

The United States is the hope of all freedom loving countries, for all look to America for strength and guidance in solving their problems. The hope of the United States and the world lies in the hands of the youth of today — the citizens of tomorrow and the Color Guard is a fine example of this youth. To the Color Guard is entrusted the care of the flag of the United States of America. Besides being an honor, it is a privilege to protect and guard the colors which represent the most outstanding nation of the world. So it is that we boys who have been chosen as the Color Guard for 1954 shall "dare to be different" and endeavor to carry out our duties of loyalty, honor and devotion to our country.
