

"Count your blessings" and do not wish to be we Seniors stepping out into the world leaving our coveted position only to be replaced so quickly by each of you. Because, you see, if "Wishing would make it so" we'd like to go back to 1950 and start anew — And strangely enough, it's the good things that take precedence in our memories of Woodward.