

JAMES ABERNATHY. Baseball is James' first love — he hopes the future will find him on the diamond.

BESSIE AMOS. You can be sure there is never a dull moment when Bessie is around — say that again!!!

BETTY AMOS. What would we have done without Bunny cheering to back our boys at the games?

JEAN ANDERSON. Jean's ambition is to serve in the Air Force. She will be a fine addition.

BENNIE ANDREWS. Humorous, easy to know, glib of tongue. Hopes to own a small business of his own.

VERNON BACON. A studious hard working boy — especially when meeting new girls.

AUGUSTINE BAILEY. Augustine believes in laugh and the world laughs with you — what a spirit.

LOUISE BARGER. Louise, a lively red-head with definite ideas — she is an asset to the Annual Staff.

MARGARET BARNES. Poise, charm, and good taste make her one of Woodward's well liked seniors.

LONNIE BELL. Lonnie's patterning after Robert Q. Lewis — and he's wise — after all.

WILLIE BENFORD. Highlighting the band as drum major, shining all around. Willie will never be forgotten.

JOAN BENNETT. Neat dresser and sparkling personality, Joan is one of the best-liked seniors at Woodward.

ADA BOLLING. She'll keep things moving on schedule in any office — we need more Ada's.

BETTY BOLT. "Jean's" ambition is to become a nurse. Such a personality will help make her a success.

LEROY BOND. The medical profession will certainly be glad to get Leroy. Good luck in future years.

BIRDIE BONNER. "Bert" takes part in many activities. She'll succeed in the field of nursing.

RUBY BOOKER. Her quietness and neatness will help Ruby in becoming an artist.

DELORES BRADFORD. Besides being a lively girl her soprano voice holds an audience spellbound.

ADDIE BROWN. Laughable, lovable, loyal, a hard worker, help to describe Addie.

CARRIE BROWN. Carrie's ambition is to become a teacher, but a polished apple will never trick her.

JACK BROWN. Jack is a member of the Honor Club and on the gridiron he is great.

