

JEAN BRUER. Quick cures are few, but with Jeanie as a nurse look out for miracles.

INEZ BRYANT. Interested in Student Council and Big Sister. Inez knows how to throw a real party!

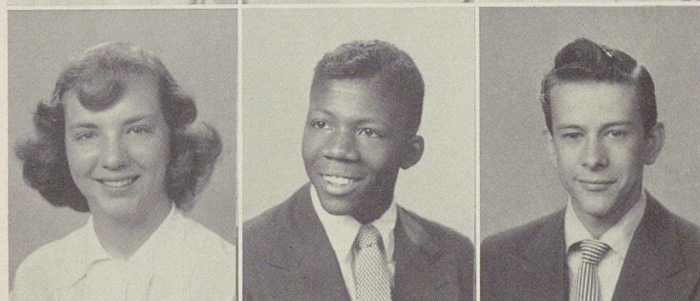

JOE BRYANT. President of the Honor Club, a hard worker and a whiz in math.

VIRGINIA BURT. Her swell sportsmanship has made her a very active member of G. A. A.

IMOGENE BUTLER. Imogene likes to travel and get there quick. No slow boat to China for her.

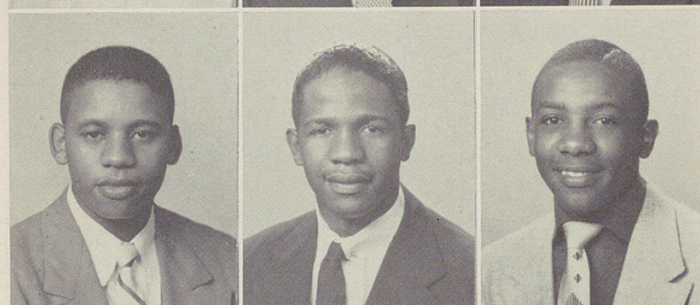

DOROTHY BUTTS. One of those rare individuals whom we never tire of being around.

THELMA BYRGE. Capable, 'diligent, helpful, describes Thelma to a "T".

WILLIAM CALHOUN. William desires to be a writer. Do we see another great "Bard" in the future?

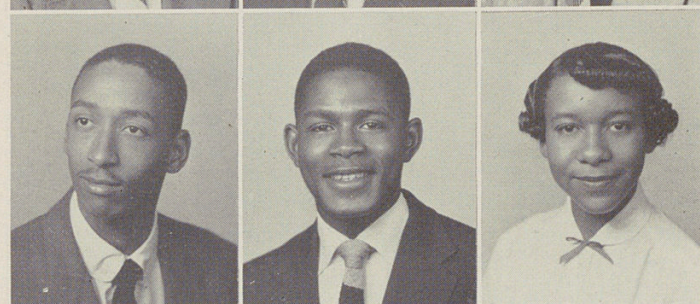

LEE CANN. Lee is interested in piloting a plane. Bon Voyage "fly boy".

GEORGE CARNES. George doesn't talk fast, but he thinks faster than the speed of lightning.

BEN CARPENTAR. A "carpenter" he'll be, a "Carpentar" is he.

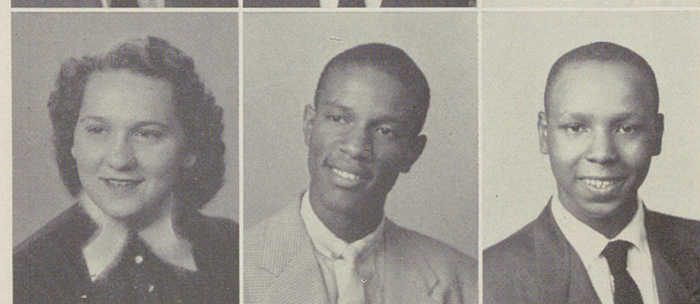

LOUIS CARR. The leathernecks will feel 100% boosted when Louis signs on the dotted line.

BOBBY CARR. Bob will go far in the music world singing and playing the piano.

EARTHELL CARSTARPHEN. Sonny is a gentleman. Simplicity of manner and heart, supremely good natured.

YVONNE CASEY. A lovely girl, with a lovely personality. There is none who can match her!

SHIRLEY CENTERS. Her happy smile and sweet disposition has won Shirley many friends here at Woodward.

GRADY CHAMBERS. Don't be surprised if you walk into a "Ciros" and hear the baritone voice of Grady!

CHARLES CLARK. A little on the quiet side, but this doesn't keep him from having many friends.

RUTH CLAYTON. Ruth has a heartfelt and sincere smile for everyone she meets.

BERTHA CLIFTON. Bertha has shown great talent in Woodward's band — we're proud of her.

HARRY CLIFTON. When Harry came to Woodward we gained a fine, sincere fella.
