

DOLORES COLVIN. "Dede" flashed through Woodward in three years—she's on her way to College.

ANNA CONNELL. Where there's laughter you'll find Anna—always has a joke up her sleeve.

STEVE CRACHIOLO. Steve ranks high with the quiz kids and is well liked for his friendly smile and attitude.

RUTH CULVER. Ruth's neatness and wonderful personality will help make her a successful secretary.

REGINA CURE. Regina will be a "Cure" for any patient as a nurse.

OBIE DANIELS. What would Woodward's band do without a big smile and a good joke from Obie.

HAROLD DENNIS. Hal's the ambitious type—wants to grow rich one of these days.

JOSEPH EASLEY. Hey, Joel, they even wrote songs about you this fall—now you are immortal.

ERMA EASTWOOD. Erma's plans tend toward the maternal side. May we wish you happiness.

GERALDINE EDMONDSON. A leader who has outstanding qualities, that's Gerry.

WILLIE ELLIS. Willie's quiet and efficient, always willing to extend a helping hand—she is a good gal to know.

DALLAS FIELDS. A likeable lad with artistic values. And friends? He has plenty.

MARJORIE FITZPATRICK. Margie's outstanding qualities make people fond of her—her sparkling blue eyes aren't entirely negligible.

JAMES FORAN. Jim will hit the dusty trail in the Marines come June.

JANET FORAN. Janet's an active Miss—she'll be an attractive R. N. in city hospital.

BARBARA FORD. Bab's irresistible smile and sweet personality will help her become a good Social Worker.

HAROLD FORD. Hal is quite a "jazzbo" on the "sax". Keep your ears tuned for more of the same.

GWENDOLYN FOSTER. Gwen is an outstanding Booster, sings well, winning personality. If there were only more like her.

HILDA FOX. Hilda loves to travel and will be a wonderful secretary for some lucky company.

GEORGE FREEMAN. George is a great guy to know—supreme nature and devoted to basketball.

GUSTONIA FREEMAN. Toni's likes seem to favor domesticity. Dietition will be her title soon.
