

ALFARETTA GAMBLE. Alfaretta's hair style is one way of describing her future as a beautician.

MARY GARLINGTON. Mary wants to become a secretary — we wish her much happiness.

GEORGE GAY. Most likely to succeed — George believes in studying and he'll reap benefits, we know.

FRANCES GAYHEART. Frances plans to go on helping people by attending New York Salvation Army Training College.

CHARLES GAYLE. Editor of the Woodward Yearbook. I'll bet the Cincinnati Enquirer could use him now!

HAROLD GOLDEY. "What did he see? He saw the sea — after four years of the Navy, we're not surprised!

JOE GRANT. Joe appears to be a hard worker on all scores. We know he'll be a success.

RAYMOND GREEN. "Nothing Green" about Ray but his name. We'll miss Ray as one of Woodward's eleven horsemen.

MALISIA HALL. First in fun, first in laughter. One really great gal.

LEDONIA HARDIN. Ledonia is an ambitious senior who has all kinds of ideas for the future.

VIOLA HARMON. Viola can be seen in the halls at noon — she marks a bright spot for us.

AUGUSTINE HARPER. Augustine is cheerful plus pleasant — quite a bill of goods to have filled.

DELORES HARRIS. "Lois" plans to attend Chase College, and become an accountant.

SAMUEL HARRIS. Be careful with that "electricity" Sam. We'd hate to lose you, wouldn't we, gals?

FRANKLIN HAWKINS. A package of dynamite who has wonderful sportsmanship.

LEWIS HEARD. Lewis is our Lucky Strike boy — he's just happy-go-lucky-go "Clovis".

GWENDOLYN HENDERSON. Her ambition is to beautify women and to own her own shop.

RITA HENDERSON. Loves all sports, especially basketball. She'll be missed by the girls in G.A.A.

EMERY HERRING. Believe it or not — Emery's hobby is fishing. Ever catch a Herring, Emery?

CLARA HORTON. "Golden Throated", gay and has that extra dash of vitality which we all admire.

VIVIAN HORTON. Jolly, amiable and good natured are Vivian's outstanding qualities.
