

JAMES PRESTON. "Pres" is an intelligent senior with a flair for art. Our Annual Staff certainly appreciates him.

SARAH PRUETT. Sarah will spend her efforts becoming a good secretary.

WILLIAM RANKIN. As capricious as they come — that's our Bill.

DORIS REYNOLDS. Doris with her pleasing smile has won her many friends at Old Woodward.

RICHARD REYNOLDS. Our future doctor — Rich studies hard and talks fast. His secret of success.

SHIRLENE RILEY. Shirlene is as pretty as a model. Her ambition swerves toward fashion co-ordinating.

JULIUS ROBERTS. A fine chemist in the near future — it wouldn't surprise us at all.

OLLIE ROBINSON. A "live wire" if we ever saw one. She has won many friends.

BETTY RAE ROLFES. There's never a dull moment when this petite bundle of joy is near.

DON SALLEE. A busy boy — Editor of the Bulldog — President of Alpha Hi-Y.

EZEPHYRO SEBRON. When we think of zephyr breezes, our thoughts will turn to Ezephyrd.

JEANETTE SHARP. An ambitious girl with personality who aspires to become an officer in the Salvation Army.

JAMES SMALLWOOD. Jim enjoys good jokes and football games. In fact he enjoys life.

MARGARET SMART. Double trouble — but we'll certainly miss Margaret around Woodward.

MARY SMART. It's a "Grand Old Name". She is a grand old girl.

BERKLEY SMITH. Berkley likes taking snapshots — that can well lead to a career.

BERTHA SMITH. Bertha is friendly, likeable and sports minded — this may seem trite, but it's a wonderful combination.

CARL SMITH. A fun-loving person and likes his levis. Well liked and has many friends.

HELEN SMITH. Here's hoping that Helen's college life will be as rewarding as her high school life.

LORINE SMITH. Some college will be lucky to have Lorine as a student.

TURNER SMITH. Jim is another "fly boy" who we hope to see in flying colors in the near future.
