

ALBERT SOLOMAN. Whenever there is a party, you can bet King Solomon is the center of attraction.

VIOLET SOLOWAY. Always neat in appearance, ready to have fun at all times.

VIRGINIA STEPHENS. Virginia shows her love of people by her ambition to become a teacher.

YVONNE STEPHENS. Yvonne appears to be burning with enthusiasm and ambition. That's what it takes these days.

CAROLDEAN STOKES. "Carol" is one of Woodward's best — friendly and wonderful person.

LESTER STOUDEMIRE. A sports minded fellow — likes to listen to popular records.

JOANN STUHLMAN. Jo desires a cottage small by a garden wall in preference to a career.

CLARA SUMMERS. Clara's a gay girl — but has her serious side also — good mixture, Clara.

ANNIE TATE. Dancing, drawing, and flying appeal to Annie who really has her head in the clouds.

NADINE TAYLOR. Nadine is outstanding for good grooming. She hopes to become a barber.

SHIRLEY THACKER. Shirley is a spirited and enthusiastic cheerleader; active in everything, generous and friendly.

EDWARD THOMAS. A fellow whose success is certain. He is a guy whose personality will take him anywhere.

CLARENCE TURNER. When Clarence starts his quartet, people will talk about how good they are.

SHIRLEY VAIAS. Woodward's "Ginger Snap." Full of fun and a fine majorette describes our Shirley.

ROBERT VAUTER. Bobby's humor, personality and generosity are way larger than he.

ALBERT WALLACE. Here is an enterprising fellow with an ambition to sail the Pacific.

MARIAN WALLER. Marian's voice is well known around Woodward. She was born to sing!

RONALD WARD. Quiet and shy, but full of fun — quick as a flash on the basketball floor.

MAXINE WARMACK. Loquacity and an easy smile should further her success in becoming a policewoman.

DOROTHY WASHINGTON. Pretty and reserved, she'll always keep you guessing.

HERBERT WASHINGTON. It's a bird! It's a plane! No, it's Herbert speeding by in a F-86.
