

ANNUAL STAFF

(Left to Right)
C. Gayle, J. Preston, J. Bryant, K. Manigan, G. King, S. Crachio'o, L. Barger, M. Fitzpatrick, Miss Julie Crotty, Advisor.

Each senior class as it rises in the status of supremacy is given the opportunity to create a yearbook. The Annual has its origin in the minds of the nine seniors who comprise the annual staff. As the year progresses the book becomes a real part of us, as it slowly reaches out to all of Woodward.

This book represents the year's activities and the people who make these activities alive and enjoyable. It is with time and great effort that this book becomes a reality and is finally placed into your hands. But don't let us kid you, for working on the Annual is an experience we wouldn't be without, and as all you underclassmen out-grow yourselves and wake up to be seniors, we bequeath to you our paste-pot, scissors, dummy, trusty typewriter, and "long hours in 206."
