

RESERVE BASKETBALL

Our Reserves weren't quite able to duplicate last year's Reserves feat of winning the championship, but they were strong contenders throughout the season. They played great basketball and always fought to the end.

Teams with superior height didn't scare them at all as they would cut them down to size. They simply outshot, outran, and outplayed their opponents. Hooks, jumps, and set shots; they mastered them all. Their deadly shooting and their coolness in a tight spot was their key to success.

They lost some hard games. This was the case when they played Walnut Hills (The Champs) and lost in the final seconds of the game. After defeating the Bullpups the Junior Eagles were never headed. Our fellows tried hard to catch them, but a few upsets slowed them down and the championship eluded the Reserves' frantic grasp. There is always next year, but the Reserves will be missing such play-makers as Turner "Mighty-Mite" Shelfield, Oliver Ware, Leo Hall and Michel Dicks, who will be moved up to fill any vacant spots.

Modern Dance? — Looks like it — but you guessed it — Basketball!
