Whenever spring rolls around and the weather becomes warm you can hear that magic sound of wood against horsehide and the familiar cry, "Play Ball."

If you happened to pass Deer Creek Commons those sounds come from the bats of Woodward's baseball team. The fellows at W. H. S., like all other red-blooded American boys, play this national sport with heart and soul. You'll find no greater determination to be among the top nine as there is on the Bulldog team.

All indications lead us to believe that this year's outfit is one of the strongest put together at Woodward in some years. Boasting such top notch players as Don "Chan" Oliver, who has pitched a couple of no-hitters, Willie (Hot Corner Guardian) Grant, Hosea "Minoso" Patterson, Troy Davidson, and homerun hitting Allen Kien, our team will win its share of ball games. The above fellows are established stars and coach Nelson Thinnies only has to build around them. To date our Bulldogs have won two and dropped one. Well on their winning way I'd say!!
