

JAMES AKINS. An easy manner and ready good humor . . . a friend indeed. High popularity rating with the girls.

EVELYN ALLGEYER. A girl who always presents an attractive appearance . . . makes us proud to say, "She's from Woodward."

JAMES T. ANDERSON. Jame's red hot trumpet notes will long echo through the halls of Woodward as he continues on his happy, carefree way.

ALBERT ANDREWS. A likable lad with a steady drawing hand . . . and a long list of friends.

PAUL ANDREWS. Manages to enjoy all the good things of life . . . a sincere and earnest worker.

JEAN ARVIN. A dynamo of energy. We've been able to depend on never a dull moment with Jean.

JOAN ASHCROFT. Her lunchroom table has been a merry one. Fun follows her around.

FLORENCE BALLINGER. Lovely black hair and a ring on the third finger, left hand. Florence's favorite recreation is to go fishing.

SENA BANKS. Why bother to study public speaking with such expressive dimples?

BILLY BARKER. A mannerly gent of his own free will is just the way to describe our Bill.

OTHELLA BARNETT. Her gay conversation brightens these halls and makes her welcome in any group.

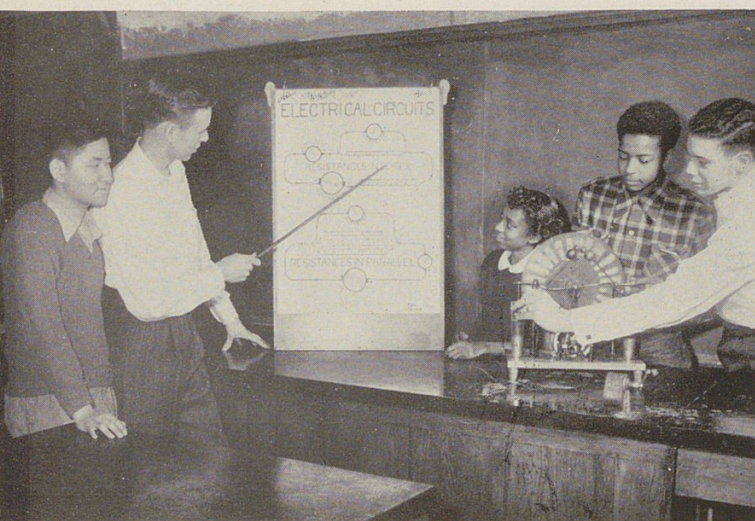

ALMA BATTLE. A happy nature and a winning smile . . . all the qualities that make a true friend.

MAX BEARE. Whatever job he takes will be helped by Max's ability to get along with people.

SARAH BELLAMY. One of Mr. Van Ness's indispensables . . . efficient, reliable . . . quick to smile.

BERNICE BENTON. Blessed with good humor and a talent for friendship. Admired by everybody for her neat appearance.
