

8:27 a.m. "Sh-h-h!"

JANIE DAWSON. Likes to tap, type, talk, dress . . . does it all well.

PEGGY DOGAN. A six-inch smile and a personality to match it . . . enthusiasm, vitality, dependability . . . will stick with the hardest job until it's done.

DOLORES DONELLEY. Do Do is blessed with a store of vitality. She makes friends with everyone.

VIRGINIA DUVAL. Jenny's sparkle and her easy-to-live-with disposition will be of great value in nursing.

EARL EDWARDS. He really gets things done . . . a lunchroom job, an after-school job, and time for studies and for friends.

MAGGIE EDWARDS. First in fun, first in laughter . . . wears her clothes like a fashion model.

WALTER EVANS. Plays a keen saxophone in the school band . . . admired for his broad shoulders.

BETTY LOU FELTNER. Dancing and basketball are two good reasons why Betty is always in the best of health and the best of spirits.

LOIS JEAN FELTNER. Knows her own mind, but she is ready to listen to someone else's opinion, too.

RAY FIELDS. Don't be fooled by that shy grin . . . behind it he's usually up to something.

FRANKLIN FLACK. What a guy! Moved from grade 11 to 12 in two weeks . . . easy-going . . . a dependable friend.

BEVELYN FOX. Queen of the candy machines. Sweet job . . . sweet girl.

LULA FREEMAN. Lockland's gift to Woodward. High grades in every subject . . . a particularly diligent chemistry student.

MARGARET FRITTS. Her keen interest in sports and school activities has much to do with making her an ideal friend.

OSCAR GARNER. Will probably turn out to be one of the best trombone players since Jack Teagarden. His neat appearance will do much to help him.
