

Big business!

MARY GEARTLEIN. An outstanding student in comptometer class. Mary has the concentration and speed the job requires.

MARY ANN GECKS. Her graces are many, her faults are few. This girl will succeed in the business field, too.

MATTIE GILLIAM. If you need cheering up, just listen to Mattie for awhile. The blues disappear when she's around.

DAISY GREEN. What would they do without her in the faculty lunchroom! An all-around gal like Daisy is a treasure hard to find.

PATRICIA GREEN. On the spot whenever anything interesting is going on — active in everything generous and friendly.

MYRETTA GREGORY. An excited spectator at Woodward's football games — enjoys skating — cherishes an ambition to become Farley Granger's private secretary.

MYRTIS HACKETT. Known for her clever way of phrasing what she has to say. Myrt is one of our "sharp" gals.

KATHERINE HAGER. Kate is a little girl who will always have warm friends. Her dress is always sharp and neat.

DONALD HALES. Plans to become an M.D. Already knows just which funny story to prescribe for an attack of blues.

SALLIE MAE HALSELL. Noted for her fabulously fast tongue. A loyal member of the Cheering Squad. Loves forbidden chocolate pie.

HAROLD HANSELMAN. Courteous and cooperative — when he speaks you may be sure he has something worth saying.

FRANK HARGROVE. Big-hearted Frank can be depended on to help any worthwhile cause. Will represent us well at Wilberforce.

RUTH HARPRING. A most wholesome personality makes this tiny girl a real favorite in her class.

ALICE HARRIS. A pleasant, sincere manner of speaking — hard-working and loyal.

ALMA HARRIS. Active and busy but never in too much of a hurry for a warm smile at her many friends.
