

22. Lunch shift — "and the last shall be first."

23. Police regulation — no more parking on the south side of school. Question: if all the teachers go to jail, who keeps school?

9th and 10th grade were photographed today. Another innovation: homeroom meetings!

24. Here's to Cincinnati's new Vice Mayor, Bobby Hill. Too bad it's just for a day! The Bulldog's out again. Maybe we'll be mentioned this time.

U. N. Assembly today.

26. No school. Hoorah for Teacher's Meetings!

29. First report card. I always thought high C referred to sopranos.

30. Hallowe'en — witches and hobgoblins exercised their magical power, demanding their tribute with the mystic phrase, "Trick or treat!"

31. Senior rings and pins arrived! The senior class was struck by an epidemic of "Shake-handitis."

Alpha Chi Gamma's party tonight was "terriff"!

NOVEMBER

2. The Band played at Cincinnati Gardens for B Day. It was quite a show.

5. Senior elections. Ben became our new Pres. and Sylvester our able Veep. Ralph Kelly and "King" Russo took Treasurer and Secretary.

Homeroom meeting: "The Importance of Marks." How well we know!

6. Ventilation fans went on today. Shut the doors and windows, we're in for the winter!

7. Today we saw a film on Chicago's Field Museum. What a place!

Bulldogs came out again today.

8. Mr. Solomon's science class makes the news.

9. The Luncheon Club was recognized and photographed for the Bulldog.

13. Our girls play good hockey at Walnut Hills.

Basketball practice starts.

14. Speech students told us in advance how good this annual was going to be!

15. The Canned Goods Drive for Thanksgiving Baskets. We had a pleasant feeling, sharing a little of our Thanksgiving plenty with somebody who was less fortunate.

16. Open House tonight. Woodward got out the dust cloth and spruced up for the "folks."

17. Girls' Assembly. All males stay clear! They spent the hour learning the secrets of beauty.

20. Hockey Play Day again. If at first you don't succeed . . . maybe I'll break the leg today!

21. The Thanksgiving Assembly was very impressive as we learned again why "We Give Thanks." The girl who won everybody's heart was Natalia Fortinsky.

22-25. Thanksgiving Holiday. Oh, did we eat!
